The Rev. William Roulston McKean, D.D., chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

The Rev. Harry R. Johnson presented the report of the Committee on Arrangements.

The Secretary reported that Grace Church, Hulmeville, has been restored to full parish status and is therefore entitled to representation by three lay deputies.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Episcopal Community Services, though not members shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled, as far as possible, the duties as prescribed by the Constitutions and Canons.

On May 4, 1964, of the 194 Parishes, Missions, and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in the Convention, the following have not qualified:

Ascension, West Chester

has not paid the Diocesan Assessment; Certificates of the Lay Deputies have not been received from:

VALLEY FORGE MILITARY ACADEMY, WAYNE
TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1964

The Holy Eucharist was celebrated at 9:00 A.M.

At 10:15 A.M. the Convention was called to order and the Judges of Election reported the results of the FIRST BALLOT, see Appendix A, page 37).

The Chair announced the following elections:

For STANDING COMMITTEE: No election; (Mr. Claude Gilkyson withdrew his name.)

For ALTERNATE DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION: Messrs. Frederick R. Drayton, Robert F. Bole, and Sydney B. Dexter; (The Rev. Dr. Edwards withdrew his name.)

For EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Rev. William H. Jefferys;

For COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS: The Rev. Drs. Harry S. Longley, and Ernest A. Harding; The Rev. Messrs. Jefferys and Lanigan withdrew their names, and the Rev. Dr. Stanley R. West was declared elected.

The Bishop advised that the SECOND BALLOT for the unfilled offices would follow as soon as ballots are prepared.

The following RESOLUTION, on motion by the Rev. Dr. MacColl, was ADOPTED:

In view of the remarks made by the Bishop in his address to the Convention on Monday evening, May 4th, and in view of the consideration and evaluation of suggestions made in the Hay report,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Bishop be authorized to re-establish a committee on the structure and organization of the Diocese, consisting of members of the Executive Council and others, charged with making pertinent recommendations.

The Rev. Dr. Longley MOVED that this Convention request the Bishop to allow his Convention Address or parts of it to be read as a Pastoral Letter at the services next Sunday and that the Dept. of Communications have copies printed and send immediately to the Parishes - Be it further moved that this Convention appropriate sufficient funds to cover cost of printing and postage. Seconded and PASSED.

The Chancellor of the Diocese reported by title. (Appendix B, page 42).

The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Sr., as chairman of the Committee on Racial Understanding, reported on current personnel policies of the Diocese. (Appendix H-6, page 79).

Chairman Henry T. Dolan, Esq., reported for the Committee on Canons and offered the following RESOLUTIONS all of which CARRIED:

RESOLVED:

That there be a proposed addition to Canon III to be known as Section VIII, as follows:

There shall be an Historiographer of the Diocese, a Clergyman, who shall hold office under annual appointment by the Bishop. He shall be Chairman, ex-officio, of the Committee on Diocesan History.

That the name of the Parochial History Committee, Resolution of Convention of 1865, page 78, of Standing Resolutions, henceforth be the Committee on Diocesan History.

That Canon VII, Section VIII, paragraph 1 be amended to read as follows:

There shall be established in the Diocese in the manner hereinafter provided a Fund for the purpose of providing protection as hereinafter specified against the cost of injury and sickness for the Bishop, Bishop-Coadjutor, Suffragan Bishops, retired holders of those offices, Clergy, including retired Clergy, canonically resident in the Diocese, the widows of any of those deceased who at the time of death meet these qualifications, and dependents of the same in instances where the Bishop has determined such financial assistance to be warranted.

That Canon VII, Section VIII, paragraph 4 be amended to read as follows

Monies for the Insurance Fund shall be those received by it from parishes and missions in the amount equivalent to the cost of such protection as specified by the Plan, or equivalent to the cost plus widows' and dependents' costs as specified by the Plan when coverage for those persons obtains. Treasurers of parishes and missions will be billed for the amount of such costs as a specified item on their Diocesan Assessment payable quarterly.

The report of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions (see Appendix H-9, page 83) was submitted by the Rev. Dr. West who presented, for Dr. Harding, the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

WHEREAS the inequities of the present scale of salaries are reflected in the pensions paid to clergy after retiring, in that clergy who have served the longest in poorly paid positions, such as mission churches, receive the lowest pension, while clergy who have served the longest in highly paid positions, such as large churches and administrative office in which they have had opportunities to save for the future, receive the highest pensions;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania urge the forthcoming General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church to undertake an independent study of clergy pensions as they are now administered by the Church Pension Fund, with a view to the effecting equalization of pensions on the basis of years of full time service in the ministry without reference to the amount of salary earned. PASSED.

Prior to passage of the foregoing resolution, the Rev. Mr. Albert offered the following substitute which FAILED to carry:

RESOLVED, that the Church Pension Fund be petitioned to establish, with sound actuarial practice a maximum pension to be received, the maximum pension to be not less than the average annual cash stipend of the ministry of the church during the previous three years past, plus whatever amount the Pension Fund has set for the minimum pension.

A motion by the Rev. Mr. Breuinger to amend the original resolution by eliminating the wording "an independent study" and substituting therefore the wording "a study", FAILED to carry.

G. Selden Pitt, Esq., reported for the Committee on Incorporation (Appendix I, page 107) and moved adoption of the following RESOLUTIONS:

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of ST. MARY'S, HAMILTON VILLAGE be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same. CARRIED.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, Doylestown be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same. CARRIED.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, West Whiteland be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same. CARRIED.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. STEPHENS CHURCH OF CLIFTON HEIGHTS be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same. CARRIED.

Report of the Cathedral Chapter was presented by the Rev. William N. Lanigan. (Appendix H-9, page 82).

The Rev. Dr. Sparkman reported by Title for the Department of Finance and Property and moved adoption of the following RESOLUTION which was CARRIED:

WHEREAS, the 179th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorized in May, 1963 a Capital Funds Campaign in the amount of $1,250,000. for the benefit of All Saints Hospital, and

WHEREAS the Executive Council of the Diocese at its meetings in February and April has recommended that the campaign goal shall also include a request for $173,582.07 to provide our share of the cost of the new National Council quarters at 815 Second Avenue, New York,

THEREFORE, be it RESOLVED, that the 180th Convention of the Diocese approves and authorizes a Capital Fund Campaign for $1,423,584.07 for the benefit of All Saints Hospital and the National Council. The Convention directs that from the monies received All Saints Hospital is to receive the first $1,250,000, the National Council is to receive the next $173,582.07 and any overage is to be used at the discretion of the Executive Council. The Convention also approves the action of the Finance Department in engaging the services of the John F. Rich Company to make a survey preliminary to the campaign.

The Rev. Dr. Aulenbach offered the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

RESOLVED, that the Convention recommend to the Executive Council that the minimum salary for the clergy in the Diocese of Pennsylvania should be at least $5,000 (five thousand dollars) per year for Missions and Parishes alike.

The report of the Department of Communications was submitted by the Rev. Dr. Longley. (Appendix H-14, page 93).

The Rev. Mr. Vail reported by Title for the Department of Missions. (Appendix H-4, page 75).

The report of the Department of Christian Education, (Appendix H-12, page 86), was submitted by Title by the Rev. Mr. St. Claire.

The Rev. Mr. Barnhart submitted by Title the report of the Department of Christian Social Relations. (Appendix H-13, page 91).

The Rev. Mr. Pollanick reported by Title for the Corporation of Christian Work in Educational Institutions (Appendix H-15, page 97) followed by the remarks of the Rev. Dr. Blewett. (Appendix H-15, page 97).

Treasurer Charles L. Ritchie, Jr., submitted his report by Title. (Appendix F, page 51).

Mr. Frederick R. Drayton presented the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund. (Appendix H-3, page 75).

The Rev. Mr. Washington reported on the work at the Church of the Advocate and distributed to the Deputies an illustrated brochure on that church's activities.

The Judges presented the report of the Tellers for the SECOND BALLOT. (Appendix A page 37). The chair announced the following elections.

For the STANDING COMMITTEE: No election; The Rev. Messrs. Jones and Van Atta withdrew their names.

For the ALTERNATE DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION: The Rev. Messrs. Charles H. Long, Jr., John J. Albert, Alfred Vail.

For the EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Messrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft and W. Charles Hogg. The Rev. Messrs. T. Gordon Ott and Frederick A. Breuninger withdrew their names and the Chair declared the election of the Rev. Thomas W. S. Logan to the EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The Convention recessed for lunch at 1:20 P.M. following which the polls were open for the THIRD BALLOT.

At 2:30 P.M. the chair called the Convention to order and the Rev. Dr. Purdie submitted by Title the report of the Episcopal Community Services.

The report of the Church Foundation was submitted by Title by Mr. A. Mitchell Shumate. Mr. Sydney P. Clark spoke briefly in regard to report. (Appendix H-5, page 77).

The report of the Committee on Ecumenical Relations was submitted by Title by the Rev. Mr. Long, Jr., who presented the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania officially acknowledge receipt of the document, 'Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ', and express its intention of accepting its full share of responsibility for the carrying out of the program.

The Rev. Dr. Edwards, presented the Recommended Missionary Budget for 1965 (Appendix E, page 50) which on motion was unanimously ADOPTED.

The Rev. Jerry G. Carpenter reported on the Chaplaincy at Episcopal Hospital. (Appendix H-8, page 81).

The Judges of Election reported the results of the THIRD BALLOT (see Appendix A, page 37). The Chair declared the following elections:

For the STANDING COMMITTEE: Mr. C. Jared Ingersoll.

For the ALTERNATE DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION: (Elected by the combined vote of both orders in accordance with the prior MOTION of Dr. McKean duly seconded and PASSED). The Rev. Francis P. Davis and Dr. M. Luther Kauffman.

Dr. McKean moved that the Standing Committee be authorized to fill its own vacancy for one year and that the next annual Convention fill the unexpired term of such office. Motion FAILED.

The Bishop advised that it will be necessary at some future date, now undetermined, for the Diocese to have the services of a Suffragan Bishop and suggested that the necessary consents be requested at the present time so that when such necessity arises the election may be held without delay.

Dr. Sturges presented the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

RESOLVED, that, pursuant to the request of the Bishop, the consent of the General Convention or of the majority of the Bishops and Standing Committee be obtained for the election of a Suffragan Bishop to assist the Bishop of this Diocese.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the Bishop is hereby requested to appoint a committee of not more than 20 members to consider candidates for Suffragan Bishop and to make known the results of its considerations prior to the convening of a Convention for the election of a Suffragan Bishop.

The report of the Standing Committee was submitted by title by Dr. Sturges.

Mr. Harry Wilkinson reported by title for the Commission on Music, (Appendix , page) and the Rev. Mr. Forster offered the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

RESOLVED, that an appropriation of $500 be allocated to the Commission for expenses.

The Rev. Mr. Ehly, for the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library, offered the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania records with sorrow the death of the Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, LL.D., on August 28, 1963, and acknowledges with gratitude his devoted service to the Diocese as Chairman of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library from 1952 until 1963.

Under his leadership the Diocesan Library has continued to expand in size and its services have become more available and useful to the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese.

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, D.D. submitted the report of the Board of Examining Chaplains (Appendix H-11, page 85) and offered the following resolution which on motion was PASSED:

RESOLVED, That the appropriation of $150.00 for expenses be continued.

The Rev. T. Gordon Ott, S.T.D., moved adoption of the following RESOLUTION:

RESOLVED, that The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, D.D., who is about to retire from the Board of Examining Chaplains after serving for a period of SEVENTEEN YEARS, fifteen of those years as Chairman of the Board, be honoured by a rising vote for this Grand Period of Service.

Seconded by the Rev. Francis P. Davis and PASSED by acclamation.

The following RESOLUTION was presented by the Rev. Dr. Long and on motion was ADOPTED:

BE IT RESOLVED, that Sec. VI, Canon 17 be eliminated from Canon of the Cathedral Foundation and renumbering of sections be made.

HOWEVER, the Chancellor of the Diocese has ruled that the foregoing RESOLUTION is out of order and the vote of conventions approving it is INVALID and of NO EFFECT. See Appendix B, page 42.

On motion by Mr. Osborne Coates PASSED UNANIMOUSLY, the Bishop directed the Rev. Messrs. John J. Albert and James R. MacColl to prepare the following RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS:

Our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom has taken into His Nearer and Dearest Presence the soul of His faithful servant and Successor of Our Lord's Chosen Apostles, our beloved Father in God, The Right Reverend Joseph Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., S.T.D., Eleventh Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and,

WHEREAS:

By his unfailing devotion to his Lord and Master Jesus Christ; by his consecrated service to The One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church; and by his warm and winsome love and concern for all the people of God, he has won a place in the heart of this Diocese and throughout the entire Church that shall not pass away, and,

WHEREAS:

The Diocese of Pennsylvania owes to him an undying gratitude for his years as Priest, as Chaplain to the Armed Forces in our country's time of war and peace, and as a Bishop in the Church of God, and,

WHEREAS:

During these many years that we have known and loved him he opened for us our eyes by word and deed to a deeper love of God in Christ, and brought us by his compelling leadership to a clearer vision of the task of the Church ministering to the manifold needs of all mankind, and by his Christian concern for all people, regardless of race or position in this life, he gave to us a greater respect for all the People of God:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That this 180th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in the Name of the Church he served, and as elected representatives of all its members, express our appreciation and gratitude for the life of Joseph Gillespie Armstrong; that we acknowledge our debt to him as our Leader and Pastor; and set forth our sincere and heartfelt sympathy with his bereaved family;

WHEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

That this Memorial be spread upon the published minutes and records of this Convention and a copy thereof, duly engrossed, be given to his family in loving remembrance of him.

"For all the Saints who from their labors rest. Alleluia."

The following RESOLUTION presented by the Rev. James H. Cupit, Jr. was on motion ADOPTED:

BE IT RESOLVED: that the 180th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania express its regret at the announced intention to retire the Right Reverend Arthur Lichtenberger, Presiding Bishop, due to ill health; and,

That this Convention further record its gratitude to God for the Episcopal leadership of Bishop Lichtenberger, for the example of commitment and devotion he has given the church during his Episcopate and especially for his forthrightness in articulating the Christian position on social issues of our time; and

That this Convention convey to Bishop Lichtenberger its prayerful concern for God's manifold blessing upon him and Mrs. Lichtenberger during their years of retirement.

Adoption of the following RESOLUTION was moved by Mrs. Robert C. Lea, seconded by Mrs. Siter Owen and PASSED UNANIMOUSLY:

WHEREAS, the Report of the President of the Episcopal Churchwomen to the Diocesan Convention has been published in the JOURNAL for the past three years, and

WHEREAS, THE DIRECTORY of the Women of the Diocese, listing names and addresses of Diocesan Officers, along with the names and addresses of all parish presidents of Women's Groups, was incorporated into the DIRECTORY OF THE DIOCESE in 1963, and,

WHEREAS, the work of the Women of the Diocese is increasingly being coordinated with the program of the staff and of the departments of Executive Council, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania accept and approve the recommendation of the Diocesan Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen that the Annual Reports of the officers of the Diocesan Board of Churchwomen be incorporated into the JOURNAL of the Diocese.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that ways and means be found by the Women, so that, through mutual responsibility and sharing of office help and equipment, the additional cost to the Diocese be minimized.

The Rev. Hadley B. Williams offered the following RESOLUTION which was ADOPTED by unanimous vote:

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Church depends upon independent theological seminaries to educate its future clergy, and

WHEREAS, the Episcopal Church provides no financial support for these seminaries through its national budget, and

WHEREAS, these seminaries are faced today with increasing operating costs far in excess of receipts from tuitions and meager endowments, and

WHEREAS, The Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, the See City of this diocese, is one of these recognized seminaries of our Church deserving of our concern and needful of our support, Therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, as represented in this the 180th Diocesan Convention, acknowledges with gratitude the teaching ministry of the Philadelphia Divinity School and urges each parish and mission within this ecclesiastical jurisdiction to assume some concern for financially supporting this seminary in a responsible manner, such as a budgetary allocation or other dependable means, and to continually encourage the giving of personal financial contributions by individual members of our churches.

The following RESOLUTION was, on motion, UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED:

WHEREAS, Church people in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have a concern for the welfare of the many refugees from political crises through the experience they have had in resettling them; and,

WHEREAS, this experience with recent refugees from Cuba points particularly to the hardship they all suffer in our midst by their parolee status; and

WHEREAS, we understand that bills have been introduced in the Congress of the United States to regularize their status so that they might become eligible for citizenship; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania record its endorsement of such legislation; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention convey a copy of this Resolution to each of the Congressmen and Senators from the legislative districts in which the Church in this Diocese ministers, with the expression, from the Secretary of this Convention urges them to act favorably to bring about the enactment of such legislation.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING CIVIL RIGHTS

WHEREAS Bishop DeWitt in his first address to a convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has commended to our attention the radical injustice suffered by racial injustice suffered by racial minorities in our midst; and whereas he has charged all churchmen with responsibility to participate actively in endeavors to redress the grievances of these minorities, especially in the light of the manifestly mounting impatience of whites with the growing impatience of Negroes and the implications of potential human tragedy therein; and whereas he has called our attention to the magnitude of the present crises in Chester, where a number of clergy and other churchmen have become deeply involved, even to the point of going to jail for their convictions; and

WHEREAS the Convocations of West Philadelphia and South Philadelphia, and a committee from the Convocation of Chester, have memorialized this convention, asking that it initiate study and action relevant to our local situations in the Diocese in pursuit of civil rights and equal opportunity for all men; and

WHEREAS, Our General Convention has declared, (1952) that "we consistently oppose and combat discrimination based on color or race in every form", and (1958) that "we call upon our fellow churchmen by God's grace to cleanse themselves of all spirit of racial discrimination; and then (call) upon all persons, especially the members of our Church, to work together in charity and forbearance towards the establishment, without racial discrimination, of full opportunities, in fields such as education, housing, employment, and public accommodations; "and, whereas, the House of Bishops of our Church declared (1963) that "it welcomes the responsible discipleship which impels many of our bishops, clergy and laity to take part in peaceful assemblage and supports them fully (in such a proper expression of Christian witness and obedience)", and, whereas, our Presiding Bishop on Whitsunday 1963 expressed at length our Church's position on racial inclusiveness within its own body and its responsibility for racial justice in society and declared that "present events reveal the possible imminence of a catastrophe: the entire Christian community must pray and act;" and

WHEREAS, the City of Chester in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is torn by internal strife centered in the activity of civil rights groups seeking to have their grievances heard; and

WHEREAS, numerous statistics and studies are available, including reports by a special committee convened by Bishop Armstrong, which statistics, studies and reports indicate the magnitude of the gulf between the Negro and white portions of the City of Chester, as to income, employment opportunities, community representation, housing, and equality of schooling; and

WHEREAS, a situation now exists in which responsible civil authorities and persons who believe themselves aggrieved have inadequate lines of effective communication; and WHEREAS, there is a grave threat of the miscarriage of justice unless there is highly responsible exercise of power by constituted authority,

Therefore BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention gives its prayerful support to the struggle for civil rights and equal opportunities, both in Chester and throughout the Greater Philadelphia area; and that this Convention approves of the recent intervention of the Governor and Human Relations Commission of the Commonwealth in the Chester crisis, and urges that persons in high authority make no peace with oppression; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all Churchmen in this Diocese be urged to involve themselves personally, through the giving of concern, time and money, in the work of securing civil rights, and of building a more equitable society in which the needs of all for jobs, housing, and good schooling are taken into account; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all Christian men and women who hold responsible positions in the governmental or industrial structures of our society be urged to utilize their power to correct the injustice done to racial minorities; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention asks the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations to conduct studies designed to reveal facts concerning the distress of racial minorities, and to identify various principles and strategies pertinent to handling these facts, and to arrange area meetings designed to keep open the necessary lines of communication concerning such matters; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention encourages the participation of this Diocese and its people in inter-faith and inter-group activities in pursuit of civil rights; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention states its appreciation to Bishop DeWitt for his forthright statement, in his address to Convention, on Christian conscience in the matter of racial tensions within the Church and society; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention also expresses its appreciation to the Presiding Bishop, the House of Bishops, and the National Council of our Church, and to the General Board of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. for their strong leadership in furthering the cause of civil rights.

The foregoing RESOLUTION which was PASSED UNANIMOUSLY with extended applause, was presented by the Rev. George H. Easter and Seconded, with remarks, by the Rev. Messrs. Wilfred F. Penny, John M. Scott, Emmett P. Paige, Robert C. Chapman, and Messrs. L. Marshall Ream and Sydney L.W. J.ea.

The polls were opened for the Fourth Ballot.

The following RESOLUTION submitted by the Rev. John P. McGarvey was, in his absence, presented without comment by the Chairman of the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A. favors legislation which will return Prayer and Bible reading to the public schools. I so move.

After considerable discussion a motion to TABLE the resolution was CARRIED. A motion to reconsider FAILED the necessary two-thirds majority.

The Rev. Dr. McKean presented the following RESOLUTIONS, each of which was UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED:

RESOLVED, that this Convention shall reconvene at such time and date as shall be determined by the Bishop.

RESOLVED, that 1250 copies of the Journal and 1000 copies of the Directory be printed and distributed as usual.

RESOLVED, that the thanks of the Convention be tendered to Lieutenant General Milton G. Baker and the faculty and staff of Valley Forge Military Academy for the use of their buildings for the meeting of Convention, and for their personal cooperation and interest.

RESOLVED, that the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rev. Messrs. Ralph K. Rogers and Warren H. Davis, Jr., to the members of the Committee on Arrangements and to the Secretarial Staff working for the Convention.

RESOLVED, that the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention the honorarium of $100.00 plus reimbursement for his expenses in connection with the Convention.

RESOLVED, that the bill for the installation of the public address system be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

The Rev. Dr. Ott, seconded by Dr. Sturges, moved the following RESOLUTION:

RESOLVED, that this Convention give a standing vote of thanks to Bishop DeWitt for his tact, wisdom and fairness, and the excellent manner in which he has presided over this Convention. PASSED by ACCLAMATION.

The Judges reported the results of the Fourth Ballot (Appendix A, page 37). and the chair declared the following election:

For the STANDING COMMITTEE: The Rev. Dr. Tom T. Edwards.

At 4:53 P.M., after Benediction by the Bishop, the Convention adjourned subject to call by the Bishop.

ROBERT L. DEWITT
President of the Convention

(Attest)

ALFRED VAIL, Secretary of the Convention

Registered Attendance: Clergy, 254; Lay Deputies, 429 and 1 Diocesan Officer, representing 147 Parishes, 15 Missions, and 1 Chapel.

APPENDIX B
RESOLUTION OUT OF ORDER

It is my understanding that sometime after noon on Tuesday, May 5, 1964, the second day of the Convention, the Rev. Charles H. Long introduced the following resolution:

"Be it resolved that Sec. VI, Canon 17 be eliminated from Canons of the Cathedral Foundation and renumbering of sections be made."

It is also my understanding that this resolution was passed by the Convention.

It is my opinion, and I so rule, that this resolution was out of order and the vote of the Convention approving it was invalid and of no effect. I so rule for the following reasons:

1. The resolution, which involved an amendment to the Canons, was not submitted in accordance with Canon XXIII, Sections 1 and 2. Section 1 provides that "All proposed amendments to the Constitution or Canons shall be filed with the Secretary of the Convention not later than 90 days prior to the Convention and shall by him be forwarded to the Committee on Canons not later than 60 days prior to the Convention." Clearly, this Section was not complied with. Similarly, Section 2 was not complied with. That Section provides that the Committee on Canons "shall not be required, save by order of the Convention, to report on any amendments referred to them later than 60 days prior to the Convention...." Here the proposed amendment was never submitted to the Committee on Canons at all, hence this Section was not complied with.

2. The resolution was not introduced in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Convention. Canon III, Sec. 1, 2. provides that the Standing Rules and Orders of the Convention "shall be in force....until they be amended or repealed by the said Convention and shall be changed only by a two-thirds vote." Standing Order II, 5. was in force at the time of the Convention and was not amended or repealed by the Convention by the Required two-thirds vote. This Standing Order provides that resolutions shall be "referred by the Chair to the appropriate Committees." In the present instance no such reference to a committee was made. Similarly, Standing Order IX, 4., which was also in force at the Convention and was not amended or repealed at that time by two-thirds vote, was not complied with. This Standing Order provides that "Resolutions must be in writing, signed and introduced into the Convention before noon the 2nd day and referred to Committee on Resolutions." Clearly, the resolution in question was not submitted in accordance with this Standing Order.

Chancellor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

APPENDIX C

REMARKS OF THE RT. REV. ROBERT L. DeWITT
TO THE 180th CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PA.,
MONDAY, MAY 4, 1964

I would like to express a deep sense of gratitude to all of you for the warmth and hospitality I have received at the hands of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. To the Dean, the faculty and the students of the Philadelphia Divinity School for taking me in as a first-year student, to share the services in their beautiful chapel, to share their meals and their fellowship in these, the days of my regrettable celibacy. Gratitude to the countless clergy and laity who have given assurances of support and good wishes. Gratitude to the Standing Committee and others whose wise counsel has been so needed in these early days. Gratitude to Bishop Hart and Bishop Tsu for the Episcopal assistance they have given, and continue to give. "I was a stranger, and ye took me in."

But most of all I would express my gratitude for Bishop Armstrong. I came quickly to understand to share in the affection felt for him by so many. Humility, simplicity, honesty and compassion are endearing qualities, qualities with which he was richly blessed. My professional relationship with him was a tragically brief, but deeply reassuring one. He welcomed me into his jurisdiction. He wanted us to till the ground together. It was a heavy plow and rocky soil. But his courage was great and his enthusiasm high. He spoke constantly of sharing the burdens together and supporting each other. I welcomed that sharing, and felt that support.

In a sense, this is his address I would give tonight. He did not yet have it written, but I do know the emphasis he had planned to make -- the theme it would bear. It was "Mutual responsibility and interdependence in the Body of Christ". This was the title of a document presented at the Anglican Congress last summer. A profound statement, it called upon the Anglican communion to awaken to its opportunities, and to meet them. In the last column he wrote for the Church News, Bishop Armstrong said: "I am endeavoring to interest as many people as I can in reading the document, to pray over it, to give consideration to it, and to talk about it. This is the concern of all of us; not just a few. This could be the greatest thing that has burst upon the Church's scene for many years, and not just another spring shower. It depends entirely upon what we do with it ourselves. To me it is exciting; it is challenging."

So let us talk about our common life in the Diocese of Pennsylvania in terms of mutual responsibility and interdependence. I would like to speak of this with reference to five areas of concern.

First of all, our organizational structure as a diocese. The "Mutual Responsibility document calls upon every church to "begin at once a radical study of its structures, of its theology of mission, and of its priorities in decision. We need to ask whether our structures are appropriate to our world and the church as it is, and if not, how they should be changed." I have been more than a little startled in studying the structure of this diocese, and particularly the responsibilities which have come to be attached to the office of bishop. And I have wondered, and marvelled, at my predecessors. Surely there were giants in the world in those days!

Yet concern over the inordinate number of boards, committees and commissions for which the bishop was directly responsible, and the gradual blurring of responsibilities of our diocesan personnel had already attracted the attention of Bishop Hart some years ago. I am grateful that he had initiated some studies of this, looking toward a more efficient diocesan organization.

I am also particularly grateful that Bishop Hart and Bishop Armstrong had seen the need for redesigning the office of Executive Secretary with its almost unmanageable responsibilities, and had brought the Rev. Alfred Vail into the post which he now holds. He has been of inestimable help to me, and I fairly shudder at the thought of having to fill my present position without his very proficient and judicious help.

With this background, it is my intention to ask Convention for authorization to appoint a committee to study, and to suggest appropriate changes in, our diocesan structure. And this to the end that we may have in this diocese a better organizational instrument to assist the clergy and the churches in doing their work.

This perhaps brings to your mind, as it does to mine, the question of a suffragan bishop for the diocese. On the one hand, it is difficult to imagine one bishop adequately handling the episcopal functions in a diocese as large as this. On the other hand, a serious consideration of possible changes in our structure might alter materially our concept of the function a suffragan would serve, and therefore the kind of person who would be needed. Therefore it is my intention to ask convention for episcopal assistance in the form of a suffragan bishop; but, once the necessary consents have been secured, to defer such election until such time as we have had opportunity to review thoughtfully our organizational structure. This may well be a matter of months, or even more. In the meantime, we are assured of episcopal assistance for our confirmation visitations from retired and neighboring bishops.

Secondly, planning the work of our diocese. Again, the Mutual Responsibility document states: "We must undertake a comprehensive study of needs and resources throughout our communion, to give us up-to-date, tested data on actual work now going on, resources in manpower (clerical and lay), training facilities, financial resources and their distribution, and the unevangelized areas which still confront the church."

It is heartening that on the initiative of Bishop Armstrong, and under the chairmanship of Mr. Sydney Lea, a Research and Planning group has been assisting the parishes and missions of the diocese in a serious self-study which will help reveal who and what and where we are as a diocese. This is tedious work, unexciting. Although one clergyman is reported to have discovered, as a result of his parish's self-study that most of his people had only an eighth grade education. As a result, he stopped reading his sermons, and discovered the Gospel more effectively proclaimed!

I want to urge as strongly as I can the complete and immediate cooperation of all the clergy and parish chairmen in the completing of this task. This is partly because of the fact that we are all in this together, and a report from every church is necessary if we are to know the diocese. But also there is the fact that data, information, is food on which planning feeds. Without adequate facts, planning is anemic, undernourished. It becomes not planning, but guessing. And planning is essential. We must remember that we are not only the grand-children of our grandparents, but also are we the grandparents of our grandchildren. There is a long tradition of planning in this city. The very lay-out of the streets bears testimony to this fact. It is as important for us in our time to probe and penetrate the future to the very best of our ability, that we may make an acceptable and worthy offering to God of our parishes, our missions, our diocese, ourselves.

Thirdly, our responsibility to the larger church. The parish has a responsibility to the diocese, just as the diocese has a responsibility to the parish. In the same way, the diocese has a responsibility to the national church, just as the national church has a responsibility to the diocese. We are mutually responsible because we are interdependent. I mention what may seem obvious because at the last convention of the diocese action was taken authorizing support of a fund drive for All Saints' Hospital, and at this convention you will be asked to authorize adding to that fund an amount representing our fair share toward the underwriting of the new national church headquarters building in New York. Home of all our national departments and divisions, it is the vital and effective nerve-center of the Episcopal Church in America.

As you know, there has been discussion of the possibility of replacing our own church house. The Standing Committee concurred with Bishop Armstrong who, with characteristic generosity and fairness, felt our first obligation was to discharge our responsibility to others before becoming concerned about ourselves. I hope the convention will endorse this proposal.

Fourthly, I must speak of the racial tensions which brood over our country, and over our community, like a thunderhead. The phrase "Mutual responsibility and interdependence" leads us to consider the unimaginable network of inter-relatedness which make a metropolis possible. The fantastically complicated system of goods and services and transportation and communication upon which makes a metropolis possible. The fantastically complicated system of goods and services and transportation and communication upon which you and I and several million other people in this area are dependent for food and shelter and clothing and luxuries. And nearly one third of that number are Negroes.

The Presiding Bishop wrote nearly a year ago in his Whitsunday message: "Countless Negro citizens have lost Patience with the slow pace of response to their legitimate cry for human rights." Now, it would seem, uncounted white citizens are losing patience with the Negroes' impatience. This is where we are.

In a sense, both kinds of impatience are understandable. In our Prayer Book tradition, the same petition in the litany which asks for deliverance "from all sedition, privy conspiracy and rebellion", also asks deliverance from "hardness of heart and contempt of God's will and commandment". The same prayer which bids those in civil authority to know whose ministers they are, that they may above all things seek God's honor and glory, also bids us duly to consider whose authority they bear. Here we see depicted that delicate and proper balance, and tension, between rights and responsibilities.

Yet our Prayer Book is not, nor is our Christian tradition, ambiguous on the fundamental issue involved in the cause of civil rights. Ours is the faith in the incarnation -- the faith that God became man. And for all eternity the dignity, the worth of humanity has been established -- humanity in all its potentiality of intellect and culture, humanity in all its diversity of race.

We are met tonight as guests of a great educational institution which bears the name of one of the great shrines of our American tradition. Nor is that American tradition ambiguous on this principle. "All men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights. Among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

If we are to be conservative Christians, and conservative Americans, these traditions we are bound to conserve. If there be any heresy in the church, or un-American activity in the nation, surely it would be the denial of these very fundamentals of our heritage, both Christian and American.

If there be impatience on the part of any of you that I speak very soberly, and at some little length on this matter, I share your impatience. But speak I must. You and I did not ask for this hour, but this hour has come. Last summer station WIBG made a survey of people in this area to determine what, in their opinion, constituted the fifteen most pressing problems of our community. Leading the list was "race relations", and that station scheduled information programs on that subject from July through February. The night I arrived in Philadelphia to begin my work here one of our clergy was jailed in Chester. And since then there has been daily unrest and frequent violence.

Chester has become a national spectacle. Chester is in our diocese. It is not "over there", it is not Birmingham or Jackson, but here. And who are those people whose civil rights are at stake? Do you realize that there are approximately 18,000 Negro Episcopalians in our diocesan family? So it is not there, but here. And it is not "they" who are involved, but "we" Episcopalians. This is why I am grateful that a background paper on the facts behind the situation in Chester has been prepared by our Christian Social Relations Department, and has been distributed to the Convention. Such dissemination of pertinent information on a critical social issue is precisely the role that the department is supposed to play. It would have been helpful to have had this information sooner; but it is a responsibility to accurately describe a situation so dynamic, so constantly changing almost from hour to hour. And it is a good report.

Also, I would like to add here that the last episcopal decision I made jointly with Bishop Armstrong, and with his strong support, was the calling of the Rev. Layton Zimmer to a special post as representative of and consultant to the bishops in areas of racial tension. The Presiding Bishop has a man filling a similar position on his behalf, as does the Bishop of Massachusetts, and others. In this diocese this position is made possible by special funds outside the diocesan budget. It was the clear conviction of Bishop Armstrong, and it is my clear conviction, that Mr. Zimmer is both knowledgeable and dedicated to a ministry of reconciliation in this area of concern. I have the fullest confidence in his judgment. I am deeply grateful to the vestry of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, for the leave of absence they granted, which made this special ministry possible.

From Gethsemane came the words: "Father, if thou be willing, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done". I could make that prayer mine, as I am sure you could make it yours. How much more comfortable we could be if this whole vexing issue would pass away.

The story is told of a Dutch pastor who spoke from his pulpit just after word was received that the Nazi blitzkrieg was over-running the Low Countries. He said to his congregation: "My good people, God has always His special work for His children to do. Sometimes He calls them to build great cathedrals to His glory. At other times He calls them to establish great works of charity to His glory. It is very clear that God is calling us now to suffer. Very well, my children, let us suffer to the glory of God".

I believe that you and I, together with the rest of America, are being called of God to suffer to His glory over this issue of racial justice. The chief suffering, for most of us, will be an anguished conscience as we strive to see clearly the role we should play. And a broken and a contrite heart God does not despise. It will lead to the pain of misunderstanding on the part of those who differ with us. It may well cause some financial pain to churches and diocese as some withdraw their financial support because of their resentment over the church's performing its historic and prophetic role.

I want to state as clearly as I can that I urge no clergyman or layman of this diocese to engage in civil rights demonstrations, let alone commit civil disobedience. At the same time, it is a simple fact that identifying with the Negro in demonstrations on behalf of his civil rights has been to date one of the most effective ways whereby concerned white people have been of help in this cause.

I respect deeply those of this diocese who have so identified in this struggle, because I know from personal knowledge that their actions have followed from the deepest kind of prayerful anguish over what should be their proper course of action. For that reason I appreciate profoundly the action of our Presiding Bishop in sending telegrams of pastoral concern and support to the wives of our clergy in jail.

With one of our brother clergy now on a hunger strike in jail because of his concern and compassion for his fellows, I feel it is laid upon the conscience of each of us to decide how he, too, can best express that same concern and compassion, in his own way.

But fifthly, and finally, this troubled issue of race is only one current facet of life of our city. It is important that we see our city in historical perspective, and in theological depth.

Historically, we in this city are a part of an experiment which has a long and honorable tradition behind it. What an arresting dispensation of Providence to be a part of a metropolis which was long ago given the prophetic name of Philadelphia, "Brotherly Love". And what a legacy of efforts we have inherited, efforts to translate that prophecy into fact. What a noble record of attempts to nurture that sacred hope that lay newborn in the cradle of democracy! Surely in this city we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses down through the years. Those witnesses, in successive generation, have borne their testimony in the face of difficulties as great and problems as real as those which confront us. The glory of our history is not that it is a record free of troubles, but one filled with troubles that were courageously faced and triumphantly overcome. Theologically, this is the perennial authentic story of the People of God. They are a people who have heard and been stirred by the Good News, the Gospel. We commonly express this by saying that this is God's world. He made it. He redeemed it. And by saying that we are God's people. He made us. He redeemed us. To know this, in the depth of one's being, is to hear the Good News, for good news it is. But we could express this in other words. We could express this in terms of our particular situation, our particular city.

The truth is that this city is the creation of God, wonderfully fashioned by Him in its complexity. Like a marvelous instrument, He so designed it that all of its many parts, all of its many people, were meant to be mutually responsible and interdependent. Like the parts of a body. As parts of His body. Such a city would truly be a city of brotherly love.

But we must also add that this is not fully the case. We must add that there are those who have not heard the Good News. We must add that each of us has failed to hear it fully, completely. This is our sin. This is our separation. This is our urban strife. These are our urban divisions, our urban tragedies, our urban squalor

It is in this context that we begin to glimpse the urgency, and the glory, of our work as a diocese. One hundred and ninety years of proclaiming the gospel to a forgetful city. The exhibits of our several departments, which I hope you have seen, are a sign and a symbol of our redemptive efforts. These, and others are the ways in which we seek to remind a city of the mutual responsibility and interdependence of its many parts and people, one to another.

I look forward with humility and hope, and I pledge you the best efforts of my inadequate understanding and energy, to working with you in the span of years ahead. My hopes are high. Your gifts and abilities are many. May God bless us all as we attempt to be faithful, and to fulfill Isaiah's prophecy:

"And your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to dwell in."

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA FOR 1963

The Annual Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is submitted herewith. A copy of the Audit prepared from the Diocesan books of account and records by Haskins & Sells is available for examination at the Church House.

Given a generally favorable economic background, receipts caught up with the Missionary budget which was higher than the previous year by $63,270. At fiscal year end (January 8, 1964) the following results had been achieved: (a) 89 Parishes and Missions paid their full accepted proportionate shares amounting to $778,990, (b) 67 overpaid by $30,550, and (c) 15 still owed $5,005.

After paying in full the pledged amount of $380,000 to National Council, the sum of $37,347 was transferred to the Unallocated Missionary Suspense Fund. Subsequent to year end and from this sum transferred, an additional $14,000 was sent to National Council maintaining our half and half sharing on Missionary receipts and, also, $20,000 for New Work was allocated for construction at St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell. Since it is almost solely from this fund that unusual missionary expenses are met and new work promoted within the Diocese, its importance cannot be over-estimated. It is from this fund that normal, as well as many abnormal, requirements are met. With a wide range of cash demands during the year, the Diocese looks to this fund "to keep the business going."

Advances made from the Unallocated Missionary Suspense Fund in previous years were repaid as follows: Epiphany, Royersford - $3,186; Good Shepherd, Hilltown - $3,000; St. James, Green Ridge - $1,000; St. John, Concord - $600; Trinity, Gulph Mills - $1,800. As a result of these repayments, these funds became available for further Missionary work in the Diocese. Recording of their repayment is intended to encourage similar action as well as to register appreciation to those involved.

Even though the Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds was officially terminated in the year 1962, there were receipts amounting to $25,360 which were received as payments on pledges not previously completed. During the year a total of $10,480 was sent to the Philadelphia Divinity School as their share of these funds, and $15,720 was made available for other use within the Diocese. There were three appropriations made during the course of the year from the Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds: Good Shepherd, Hilltown - $16,449; St. John, Compass - $18,000; St. Francis-in-the-Fields, Williston - $2,000.

Much discussion was had and considerable work was done and continues in order to alleviate the seemingly ever increasing flow of work in the Treasurer's office. We all wish to effect a result which gives the Diocese better reports and greater efficiency with equal control and minimal expense. The hard work of all those involved in the department is recognized and recorded here with gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. RITCHIE, JR., Treasurer

JOHN W. THORN, Assistant Treasurer

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE
TO THE 1964 DIOCESAN CONVENTION

At the stated meeting of the Standing Committee held on May 28, 1963, the Committee received the report of the Secretary of the Convention that the Convention had elected to the Standing Committee The Reverend Richard T. Lyford, D.D., and Henry Dolan, Esq., for a term of five years expiring in May 1968, and S. Stoney Simons to serve the unexpired term of Francis J. Chesterman which expires in 1966.

The Reverend Philemon F. Sturges was elected President of the Standing Committee, and Townsend Munson was elected Secretary.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Committee on the Episcopate: Dr. McKean
Budget Committee: Mr. Drayton, Chairman;
Dr. MacColl, Mr. Wheeler

The past year (that is, since the 1963 Diocesan Convention) has been an unforgettable one in the life of the Diocese. The retirement of Bishop Hart, the succession and installation of Bishop Armstrong, the election of Bishop DeWitt as Coadjutor and then, after a 23-day term of service as Coadjutor, the succession of Bishop DeWitt as Diocesan on the untimely death of Bishop Armstrong on April 23, 1964 - all to be long remembered. In these events, the Standing Committee played an active role only in the Installation Service of Bishop Armstrong, which was held on October 26, 1963, at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, with Mr. Drayton, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements.

For the record, it should be noted that the Standing Committee took no active part in the nomination of the Bishop Coadjutor. The Committee for the Nomination of a Bishop Coadjutor was selected by Bishop Armstrong, who named the Committee with Mr. Wheeler as Chairman.

Since the 1963 Diocesan Convention, the Standing Committee has approved and signed consents for:

- 9 Candidates for Holy Orders.
- 14 Applications for Ordination to the Diaconate and
- 11 Applications for Ordination to the Priesthood

William White, Jr., Esq., was reappointed Chancellor of the Diocese, and Harry C. Barbin, Esq., and John Butterworth, Esq., were named Vice Chancellors.

Journal of 1964

Bishop Hart was voted an honorarium of $2500 following his retirement on July 18, 1963.

During the course of the year, in accordance with the instructions of the Diocesan Convention, the Standing Committee continued its study of the proposed new Church House. In its study, valuable assistance was given by Day & Zimmerman, Inc., who estimated that 33,270 sq. ft. were required for normal operations, and that, including outside walls, halls, stairways, and washrooms, 58,000 sq. ft. would be required. If the building were constructed on the present Church House site, this would mean a basement and 7-story building. The approximate cost of the new building on the present site was estimated at $1,350,000. including demolition and furnishings, though admittedly this was only an approximation and it was not based on firm bids.

An analysis of the meetings of the Church House showed that there were 50 separate groups which regularly met during the course of the year, requiring 700 meetings; and, from questions directed to those who most often used the Church House, a center-city location was apparently required.

Consideration was given to other central-city locations and, in January 1964, a hearing was held at the Church House to hear the objections of those who were opposed to a central-city location. The majority of those objecting to center city were in favor of establishing the Church House at the Cathedral in Roxborough.

In February 1964, the Standing Committee decided that, because of the impending drive of All Saints Hospital for capital funds, consideration of the erection of a new Church House should be postponed.

During the course of the year, a number of applications were received under Diocesan Canon XII for the sale or encumbrance of various parish properties. The comment in the Standing Committee's Report to the 1962 Convention bears repeating, in that many of these applications are not in proper form and should be discussed, before their submission, with the Administrative Assistant to the Bishops or with the Secretary of the Standing Committee. One of the most important applications to the Standing Committee was that of Trinity Episcopal Church, Ambler, which requested the approval of the Committee to use a portion of the church property as a home for retired persons, with the cost of the home estimated at $300,000. While the Committee decided that the use of the property for such a purpose would not conflict with the requirements of the parish in its holding of services, it was felt that the use of the facilities as conceive would confront the Diocese with problems and responsibilities with which it should not be involved. It was suggested that, if the facilities were under the control of an of an independent corporation, or if a day center was planned rather than a home for the well aging, the problem would be reconsidered.

In December 1963, the Church Foundation was authorized on behalf of the Diocese to purchase premises 419 Garden Lane, BrynMawr, Pennsylvania, as a home for Bishop and Mrs. Armstrong. Subsequently, in April 1964, after the un-death of Bishop Armstrong, the Committee authorized the sale of the property.

The Committee expressed to Bishop DeWitt its appreciation and admiration for the manner in which he has met the challenge in assuming the responsibility of the Episcopate on the death of Bishop Armstrong, and pledged to him its wholehearted support.

Respectfully submitted,
TOWNSEND MUNSON
Secretary

APPENDIX H-1
THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE

We made an offer of $65,000 to the Lutherans for their Church at 45th and Osage Avenue. This offer is still pending.

We cooperated in the matter of obtaining ground at Blue Bell for a Church.

We met with a builder at the Young People's House at Whitemarsh to obtain estimates for repairs.

Various meetings of the Architect's Committee were arranged for and plans for the Church House were decided upon.

We cooperated with the Standing Committee on the purchase of 419 Garden Lane, Bryn Mawr, for the Bishop, and the sale of his old house at 128 Roberts Road, Bryn Mawr. We also expressed our opinion on the use of land at Trinity, Ambler.

Various repairs throughout the Diocese were made.

Respectfully Submitted

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,
Chairman

APPENDIX H-2
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1963, and has performed the functions assigned to it by Canon.

The Property Department is a sub-department under Finance, which is charged with the surveillance of all physical property owned or under the control of the Diocese. The Chairman renders a separate report.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the Chairman, who renders a separate report.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1963 have been paid in full. The Diocese has promised to share with the National Council on a dollar to dollar basis all contributions for the missionary budget of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,
THORNE SPARKMAN,
Chairman

Diocese of Pennsylvania

APPENDIX H-3
REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CHRISTMAS FUND

The financial statement of the Fund is incorporated with the report of the Treasurer, being set forth on page ().

At the close of 1963, there were seventeen beneficiaries receiving annual grants ranging from $360 to $900. It is the practice of the Fund to send questionnaires to all beneficiaries each year and to award grants on the basis of the information contained therein, which explains the different scale of payments. During the year, one beneficiary died.

At its meeting on January 7, 1964, the Trustees increased eleven grants and continued the balance at the same rate. (Shortly after the Convention of the Diocese, one additional beneficiary was added.)

The Fund continues with its modest assistance to relieve in difficult situations confronting the beneficiaries.

F. R. DRAYTON,
Secretary

APPENDIX H-4
DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

During the year 1963 the Department of Missions met five times, in addition to two meetings thus far in 1964. During this period it carried out its supervision and aid for all Diocesan missions. It provided financial assistance to help missions complete emergency or necessary repairs to churches, parish houses and vicarages. Most of the missions of the diocese continue to receive financial assistance from the Diocese for partial payment of salaries and expenses of vicars. On many occasions advice and guidance and support was rendered to individual missions and vicars by the Department.

In addition to the above mentioned normal operations of the Department, active planning was carried out by the Missionary Strategy Committee of the Diocese, which is a committee of the Department of Missions. This committee works closely with the Division of Research and planning of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. It is under the chairmanship of Mr. Vail, and is composed of the Dean, two laymen and two clergy from each of the convocations. Ground work was done by this committee for establishment of missions, mergers, relocations of Diocesan missions. The committee was also of service to several parishes that sought advice in the realm of missionary strategy. Questions of missionary policy of the diocese were raised and studied by this committee.

Journal of 1964

During the year 1963 only one new mission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was established—St. Dunstan's Church, Blue Bell. During that same period several vicarages and parishes were built and parish houses enlarged among the missions of the Diocese. One church was built—St. Francis in the Field, Sugartown.

Several churches and parish houses were condemned and sold to the state during this period, although no active congregations were dissolved. Several parishes and missions had to relocate, and in some instances begin to share facilities.

St. Cyprian's Mission, Eastwick, merged with St. Barnabas' Church, Haddington. The clergy of both churches will continue in a joint ministry to the congregation. With the merger we hope for a strong integrated work.

The position of the Executive Secretary of the Department of Missions which was voted by the Convention of May, 1963, has not as yet been filled. However, it is hoped that before long this appointment will be made in order that the work of the Department of Missions will be supplemented.

It was recommended by the Department of Missions and voted by the Executive Council of the Diocese that all Diocesan vicars, in addition to their basic salary, be supplied with utilities as part of their remuneration. It was hoped that the missions would be able to do this, but if not, the Diocese would.

On April 6, 1964, Bishop Armstrong turned over the chairmanship of the Department of Missions to the Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt, our new Chairman. The Committee unanimously gave Bishop Armstrong a sincere vote of gratitude for his outstanding leadership as chairman of the Department of Missions for over fourteen years.

THE REVEREND ALFRED VAIL,
Vice Chairman,

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

I have been asked to talk to you for a few minutes about the work of The Church Foundation and its Report for 1964 which has been presented by Mr. Shumate and present its Report for 1964, copies of which you have. The fly-leaf of the Report contains the list of officers and directors of The Foundation and since it is my privilege to be Chairman of the Committee on Investments I will confine my remarks to comments on the operations of that Committee as shown by the Report. In my capacity as Chairman I have followed such distinguished churchmen as Mr. Frank H. Moss and Mr. Clarence M. Brown who served in that office in former years, and the presentation which we are now making contains much of their wisdom.

The Church Foundation is the designated trustee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and manages 34 Diocesan and Capital Funds, exclusive of Building Funds or real estate, and 203 Capital Funds for various Churches and Church Organizations. Our fiscal agent is Provident Tradesmens Bank and Trust Company, and our accounts are audited by the nationally known firm of Haskins and Sells.

During the year 1963 new funds and additions to existing funds amounted to $960,000. while $136,000. was withdrawn.

The combined Consolidated and Legal Funds as of March 5, 1964 had a total book value of $9,783,000., these same securities having a market value as of the same date of approximately $13,000,000. By far the largest addition to our Funds last year was the sum of $457,000. from the Houston Foundation Fund and that Fund, standing at $1,511,000. on December 31, 1963 was the largest participating fund in the Consolidated Fund, there being two others in excess of $1,000,000.

The Committee on Investments is by no means a "yes-man committee", and at our meetings there are sometimes arguments approaching acrimony. Decisions as to security purchases must be unanimous and we have endeavored to distribute funds appropriately as between various classes of securities. Review and comparison of our portfolio by financial knowledgeable organizations indicates that our position conforms to modern practice.

The statements on pages 14 and 26 in the Annual Report set forth the type and distribution of the securities held in both funds and it will be seen that of the Consolidated Fund total, 41.3% is in bonds and 53.6% in common stocks, at market prices. However, it has been the policy of the Committee to keep constantly before it a list showing the maturities of various bond issues, and it is significant that more than half of total maturities held by the Fund are due in ten years or less, and 80% of such bonds are those of the U.S. Government or its agencies. It is the policy of the Committee to keep a strong position in short maturities for the purpose of obtaining the best possible income return on an average basis. We are now working on the simplification of our portfolio so as to improve continuous supervision.

Two particular events occurred during the year which demanded our most careful attention.

First, Future of our Legal Fund—Not long ago all funds known as "legal funds" were dependent on lists of securities that bore the "approved" label, in one state or another. In recent years laws have been liberalized in many states, including Pennsylvania. It has not been possible, however, to discard these legal funds altogether, as they are still essential in some cases, such as Cemetery funds. In the long run, some of the banks intend to develop their legal funds into "income funds", which are directed toward a generous rate of current income, with less regard to increase of capital, and it could serve the needs of some of our participating organizations. The matter is still under discussion.

Second, Change in Treatment of Small Stock Dividends—Until recently all stock dividends (in shares of the company paying the dividend) were added to capital. Last year, in the State Legislature, a bill was passed which allowed trustees, for the first time, to pay out as income stock dividends of 6% or less. We took advice from our Committee on Trusts, and, as a result of minor amendments to the rules under which our Funds are operated, our counsel now advises that we have full discretion as to how to treat these small stock dividends. We have recently adopted the policy, for both funds, of liquidating all stock dividends of 6% or less, and paying them out as current income to the holders of our units. For the present, at least, this will serve to bolster income yield in a time of high prices, although the policy may be altered if we find that our capital position is being diluted by the practice.

The members of the Board of The Church Foundation are men dedicated to the service of the Diocese. They will welcome inquiries directed to the information submitted in this Report through our very efficient Executive Vice-President, Mr. Shumate, or Miss Niethammer at the office of the Foundation in the Provident Building.

Respectfully submitted,
SYDNEY P. CLARK

COMMITTEE ON RACIAL UNDERSTANDING

Our late and beloved Bishop, Bishop Armstrong assigned to me the task as Chairman of the Committee on Racial Understanding to report "to the Convention meeting in 1964 on efforts made to implement the resolution of 1963 on personnel policies."

I therefore report that all hirings at the Church House since the passing of that resolution have been made on the basis of qualification by interview and testing in an unbiased manner.

The Bishop has sent a memorandum to all Rectors and Vestries commending to them the principles and details of this resolution.

It was his earnest hope that the Rectors, Vestries and Congregations of the several Parishes would heed and attempt to meet the ideals set forth in this Resolution in the unbiased hiring of Clerical and lay staff.

Practically, as far as I can find, there were six team ministries at:—

St. Augustine's
St. Thomas—West Philadelphia
St. Mary's—Hamilton Village
St. Barnabas'—result of merger of St. Barnabas' & St. Cyprian's
St. Simon's
The Annunciation
The Advocate

I call to your attention that for the most part these team ministries are at predominately Negro Churches.

Submitted by,
THE REV. JESSE F. ANDERSON

APPENDIX H-7
COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons recommends to the 180th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adoption of the following:

RESOLVED:

That there be a proposed addition to Canon III to be known as Section VIII, as follows:

There shall be an Historiographer of the Diocese, a Clergyman, who shall hold office under annual appointment by the Bishop. He shall be Chairman, ex-officio, of the Committee on Diocesan History. (Request of the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Twelves to the 1961 Convention)

That the name of the Parochial History Committee, Resolution of Convention of 1865, page 78, of Standing Resolutions, henceforth be the Committee on Diocesan History. (Request of the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Twelves to the 1961 Convention)

That Canon VII, Section VIII, paragraph 1 be amended to read as follows:

There shall be established in the Diocese in the manner hereinafter provided a Fund for the purpose of providing protection as hereinafter specified against the cost of injury and sickness for the Bishop, Bishop-Coadjutor, Bishops Suffragan, retired holders of those offices, Clergy, including retired Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, the widows of any of those deceased who at the time of death meet these qualifications, and dependents of the same in instances where the Bishop has determined such financial assistance to be warranted.

That Canon VII, Section VIII, paragraph 4 be amended to read as follows:

Monies for the Insurance Fund shall be those received by it from parishes and missions in the amount equivalent to the cost of such protection as specified by the Plan, or equivalent to the cost plus widows' and dependents' costs as specified by the Plan when coverage for those persons obtains. Treasurers of parishes and missions will be billed for the amount of such costs as a specified item on their Diocesan Assessment payable quarterly.

Extension of major medical coverage to widows and dependents is in obedience to Resolution of Executive Council of February 14, 1964.

APPENDIX H-8
EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

Since Mr. Butterworth, the chairman of the board of managers is out of town, I have been asked to make this report to the convention.

First, I should like to say "Thank you" for the growing parish and mission support of the Thanksgiving Offering. As you probably know, three years ago the hospital adopted the policy of having this offering go entirely for the support of the chaplaincy service and the maintenance and upkeep of the chapel. As a result in these three years the offering has grown from $12,000 to $18,000, -this toward a total cost of about $25,000 to the hospital for carrying on this work.

Second, I want to report that the hospital has spent this past year, an additional $53,831 to completely rehabilitate the 102 year old chapel. Bishop Armstrong was with us for the re-opening of the chapel last October and shared with all of us at the hospital our pleasure in having this beautiful chapel once more functioning in the midst of the hospital.

Third, I should like to report that the active solicitation phase of the building fund program has been completed although funds are still coming in. The hospital has been approved for Hill-Burton grants for one-third of the cost of the new building instead of one-half as had been anticipated. This may make it necessary to reduce the new building from the six floors originally planned to four floors. I think this makes it clear why the hospital particularly would welcome any additional gifts at this time.

Chaplain

APPENDIX H-9 CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

In May 1963 the Chapter, acting on the suggestion of its Finance Committee and with the advice of Counsel, began the orderly liquidation of the securities in its various Funds and the transfer of the proceeds to the custody of the Church Foundation under Revocable Trust Agreements. The Funds and their amounts are as follows:

The Hay Fund	$141,660.66
The Henry W. Watson Altar Fund	12,687.53
The Sara E.G. Tatum Fund	15,506.97
The Cathedral Foundation Fund	46,328.75
The Busch Fund	4,843.53
The Childrens' Chapel Fund	7,980.26

To date the transfers of the Bishop Garland Fund, the Earp Fund and the Scull Fund have not been effected.

The above procedure was adopted by the Chapter because of the general feeling among its members that no one individual or Committee should be asked to bear the responsibility of the oversight of these matters and that their interest might be better served by the Church Foundation.

During the year Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler resigned as a member of the Chapter. The Chapter elected Mr. Samuel H. Ballam, Jr., a member of All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, to succeed Mr. Wheeler.

During the year the Chapter empowered Bishop Armstrong to appoint an impartial Committee of his choice to consider the whole matter of the Cathedral and to submit its report as soon as practicable.

Respectfully Submitted,
WILLIAM N. LANIGAN
Secretary-Registrar

APPENDIX H-10

THE COMMISSION ON RECTORS SALARIES AND PENSIONS

The Commission has during 1963 fulfilled its major responsibility to insure that the Clergys' pension premiums are kept paid up to date and that, consequently, our Diocesan Account with the Church Pension Fund may be kept in satisfactory condition. This involved payment of $2080., upon the recommendation of Bishop Armstrong, from the Commission's Reserve Funds; some, if not all of which may be repaid. The accounts of four of the Clergy were in serious arrears.

Only two parishes needed assistance in the payment of clergys' salaries; these were under the care and supervision of the Department of Missions. No request was made for an assessment to aid parishes in 1963 and none is asked for in 1964. The Reserve Funds of the Commission seem entirely adequate for present needs and for the foreseeable future.

The figures for payments from the Church Pension Fund, both in our Diocese and in the Church at large, for 1963 are interesting and illuminating, and we would like to mention a few totals:

In the Diocese during 1963:

53 Retired Clergy and
1 Disabled Clergyman received.....	$117,022.80
71 Widows received.....	83,302.80
7 Orphan Children received.....	3,907.20
132 Beneficiaries who received a total of.....	$204,232.80

Throughout the Church, 1963

1056 Retired Clergy received.....	$2,008,992.00
107 Disabled Clergy received.....	210,571.00
1600 Widows received.....	1,784,779.00
287 Orphan Children received	144,687.00
3050 Beneficiaries who received a total of	$4,149,029.00

It will be recalled that the Church Pension Fund started with total Capital Funds of some $8,000,000., raised under the dedicated leadership of Bishop William Lawrence of Mass.

Finally we desire to pass on to the Convention a Resolution received in February 1964 from the Diocese of San Joaquin, Calif., which has to do with the Church Pension Fund. It was sent by Bishop Armstrong to the Department of Christian Social Relations, and then referred by them to this Commission.

The Resolution requests the General Convention to direct the Church Pension Fund "to look into the following specific areas":

- a) "That age 65" (instead of 68 as at present) "be considered for special retirement for men whose health is such that continuing in the full ministry would be at risk to their longevity, though technically not disabled."
- b) "That those retiring thus early might serve the Church on limited duty both to their advantage and the advantage of the Church."
- c) "That the $1,000., death benefit be granted in all cases to widows of the clergy, whether at death in active cure or not." The reason given for this recommendation being that the widow of a retired clergyman needs the benefit more than one in active position on full pay.

The Commission gave this Resolution its careful consideration at their meeting, April 10, 1964, and decided to submit it to this Convention without recommendation.

STANLEY R. WEST,
Chairman

APPENDIX H-11

BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLINS

The Board has held three meetings during the Convention year. The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, D.D. was elected chairman, and the Rev. T. Gordon Ott, S.T.D. was elected secretary.

Regular examinations were held in Thanksgiving week and in Easter week. On several occasions special examinations were given to Candidates in the Bible. Recommendations for dispensation from Greek for four candidates were made to the Bishop.

The following have been recommended as Candidates during the Convention year;

David Wesley Hyatt	Paul Everitt Meglathery
Harold David Kenkins	Walter Fred Hartt
Jack C. Potter	Thomas Edward Lippart
Don F. Vandergrift	William J. Davies
Robert Irwin Jones

The following have been recommended for ordination to Holy Orders;

John Peter Black	Howard Samuel Meeks
John Skain Mason	Walter Fred Hartt
Wallace Boyd Houston, Jr.	Floyd A. Adams, Jr.
Robert Guy Browning	John Arthur Phillips
William Wayne Davis	John Douglas Clark
Raymond Eldon Cole, Jr.	David Wesley Hyatt
William M. Longstreth	Harry Ifill Lauer
James Edgar Morris

The following has been recommended for ordination to the Perpetual Diaconate;
John Eugene Campbell

The Board offers the following resolution;

RESOLVED, that the appropriation of $150.00 for expenses be continued.

Respectfully submitted,
J. WESLEY TWELVES, Chairman

Attest: T. GORDON OTT, Secretary

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The department through its staff and members continued to seek ways of serving the parishes of the diocese; participated in Christian education programs in the province; and in experimental work with the National Council. Basic to its work is the need to be aware of and to keep abreast of developments in the field of education and the thinking of the Church regarding its faith and life.

The department at its meetings considered:

- Reuel L. Howe's THEOLOGY FOR EDUCATION
- RELATION OF NURTURE AND TRAINING FOR MISSION
- THE GOSPEL AND THE CHRISTIAN'S MISSION
(Panel presentation and discussion)
- THE PHILOSOPHY OF COLLEGE WORK TODAY -
The Rev. Marvin H. Hummel, University of Delaware
- THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH'S CLOSELY GRADED AND SMALL CHURCH SCHOOLS materials - in terms of where they began and where they are today.

Again, the department co-sponsored with the Committee on College Work, a Fall conference for college students.

Other projects in which the department participated are;

- PARISH LIBRARIANS WORKSHOP at Drexel Institute, April 20, under direction of Dr. Harvey, Dean of the Graduate School of Library Science.
- Bishop Armstrong's CLERGY CONFERENCE ON URBAN CULTURE, October 3-4.
- Planning for the PROVINCIAL CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONFERENCE at College of Preachers, November 25-27, the Rev. Reuel L. Howe, leader.
- The Provincial Training Institute - Northern section - held at Denbigh - 1st phase, October 25-November 2.
- The National Council's Christian Education and Christian Social Relations' pilot project at the National Training Laboratories, Bethel, Maine. The executive secretary of both diocesan departments attended as a team.

ADULT DIVISION The Rev. Harry R. Johnson, Chairman

What are we educating our adults for? How can we as a diocese unite to focus on the primary task of the Church - "entering into our Lord's work in the world." This is the way the Adult Division is moving today.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION Miss Elizabeth M. Rapley, Chairman

The Children's Division has prepared five issues of the MEMORANDUM FROM ROOM 30 this past year and it continues to be well received and appreciated by the parishes.

The following items have been under discussion and/or acted upon:

Mrs. Charles W. Nulf, member of St. James' Church, Prospect Park, Pa., continues to act as "Clearing House" for Christmas gifts from and to parishes and missions and other agencies in the diocese. This method, with Mrs. Nulf's most efficient handling of the situation, is the most satisfactory way that Christmas gifts have been distributed in recent years.

The third and last of the 1962-1963 Mission Study Workshops on RIM OF EAST ASIA was held on January 30, 1963; two Mission Study Workshops for the 1963-64 year on THE CHANGING CITY CHALLENGES THE CHURCH were held on November 7 and 14 at St. Paul's, Levittown and Trinity, Swarthmore, respectively. This division cooperated with the Episcopal Churchwomen on all three of these workshops.

A Church School Superintendents session was held at the Philadelphia Divinity School on Saturday, September 28. Approximately 25 people attended with 10 staff members in addition. The session was valuable in that it presented practical helps. Requests were made for a similar session after the first of the year.

Preliminary discussion has been held with regard to holding a Vacation Church School Workshop on April 18, 1964.

It is the endeavour of the Children's Division to promote such new materials as are available and desirable for use in our Church Schools, the Memo being the usual organ of publicity. In the past year new Small Church Schools materials, revisions in the Church's Teaching Series and the Small Church Schools Bulletin (incorporated in FINDINGS magazine) have all been recommended by the Children's Division and duly promoted, together with new visual-aids.

PRESENTATION SERVICE (Church School Missionary offering) . . .
. . . The Rev. Edward B. Pollanick, Chairman

Our children presented as their Church School Missionary Offering $25,519.02 to Bishop Hart on Sunday, May 20 at the great outdoor Service on the grounds of the Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough. About a thousand children formed the vested choir and the Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr. preached. The committee purchased a new platform for the altar and a new reredos will be purchased later.

CHURCH SCHOOL-BY-MAIL The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, Chairman

Ninety-one pupils were enrolled in the Church School-by-Mail during 1963. Eleven of these are now attending Church School, eleven have moved, and one has died, leaving a total of sixty-eight at the end of the year.

Five parishes used this service for eight sick or handicapped children. Three outlying parishes provided workers to send and correct lessons, and to visit families in their districts.

Out of 33 families, 5 have children retarded or sick, unable to do the written work. Of the remaining 28 families, 20 responded with returned written work, 12 regularly and 8 irregularly. The others responded with cards and letters or when visited were found to be using the books. Their missionary offering was $17.00.

Forty visits were made, 28 to families on roll, and 12 to possible prospects. Ninety-two Christmas presents were provided by scholarship donors and participating parishes.

One hundred and eighty-three ($3.50) scholarships were received from the Episcopal Churchwomen, Church Schools, and other organizations and individuals to support the work.

YOUTH DIVISION

. . . . The Rev. Warren H. Davis, Jr., Chairman and Diocesan Youth Advisor

OUR MINISTRY WITH YOUTH

Episcopal Young Churchmen's Council

Purpose: Study and discussion; planning of Annual Youth Service; Convention and Fun Day.

Membership: Twenty young people chosen from nominees from summer youth conferences, youth organizations in the diocese, and other young people.

Council Weekend: September 6-8, 1963: Orientation to Council, Bible Study, and identification of areas of concern for study and discussion throughout the year (pilot group for use of audio-visual kit on CHRISTIAN VOCATION), at Denbigh.

Monthly Meetings: October through June, second Thursday (4:30-7:00 p.m.) - Church House.

Diocesan Youth Service: January 27, 1963, Church of the Saviour; Theme: OUR SEARCH; Trialogue: the Rev. James A. Trimble, the Rev. Donald L. Farrow, and the Rev. G. Crofton Thompson.

Convention and Fun Day: May 25, 1963, at Denbigh. Bishop Hart was presented with the third installment ($1000) toward Operation Swimming Pool.

National Study Conference at Sewanee, Tennessee: Three young people were sent as delegates; August 21-28, 1963.

Philadelphia Council of Churches' Youth Day: FESTIVAL OF FAITH - February 2, 1963. Also, members of our Council took part in a TV series on vocations.

YOUTH COMMISSION

Training for Advisors working with youth in parishes and missions:

two - March 30, 1963, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. - St. James, Langhorne
- Good Samaritan, Paoli

- September 21, 1963; 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. - Cathedral, Roxborough

The Commission decided a two-session training program should be offered to parish youth advisors:

1st part: Orientation

2nd part: Workshop - (actually working with the resources); and one young person should accompany the youth advisor to the workshop.

SUMMER YOUTH CONFERENCES The Rev. James A. Trimble, Chairman

1962 Summer Conference Reunions were held January 4 and 5, 1963 at Denbigh - capacity attendance.

Three overnight staff conferences were held in preparation for the five youth conferences -

Theme for all conferences: DISCIPLESHIP:

Senior High - June 16-22

Senior High - June 23-29

Middle High - June 30-July 6

Junior High - July 7-13

Junior High - July 14-20

Attending the conferences were 346 young people and 83 staff members. Young people had to be turned down for most of the conferences - filled to capacity.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING DIVISION . . . The Rev. Donald L. Farrow, Chairman

Under the leadership of this division were held:

Consultation Training - in Bucks County, January 12

Parish Leaders Institute - for clergy - January 21-23

Province III Training Institute - Denbigh

(Executive Secretary on committee planning for same.)

First phase: October 27-November 2. Six from this diocese attended. Chairman of Leadership Training Division on staff.

Many members of this division provided leadership for parish PLC (Parish Life Conference) and Episcopal Churchwomen events.

AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE The Rev. Kenneth C. Werner, Chairman

The two classes of membership in the Audio-Visual Cooperative have helped increase efficiency for users of the filmstrips, slides and equipment.

Christian Youth Cinema, Inc., Glenside, continues to act as the distributing agent for the handling (booking and maintenance) of our 16mm films.

Mrs. Mary Branson joined the department staff in August and works with Audio-Visuals — Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week.

Plans are being made to issue a new Audio-Visual catalogue.

The past year marks twenty-five years of loyal service of Miss Beryl M. Newman in the department; the department has truly grown in strength and influence from her distinguished leadership. To mark this anniversary, members of the department presented her with a gift and a check.

The preceding comments read quickly and in no way reveal the amount of time and energy given by all concerned. To each and all, and especially to the Executive Secretary and her dedicated staff, the Chairman expresses his deep appreciation....It has been an inspiration and a privilege to be associated with such loyal and interesting people.

We ask your continuing prayers for it is God that gives the increase.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBERT K. ST. CLAIRE,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

With the completion of a decade of service by one chairman, and the beginning of the first year of service by the current chairman, the Department of Christian Social Relations has properly spent a large portion of its time in re-studying its role in carrying out the mission of the Church in the community to which the Diocese of Pennsylvania ministers.

Out of this re-evaluation of its function, the Department will seek to fulfill its role by working through its four Divisions in the year ahead. Each of its Divisions (Christian Citizenship, Health and Welfare, World Relief and Inter-Church Aid, and Urban-Industrial Church) will focus on major priorities with the approval of the entire department.

RACIAL UNDERSTANDING

An example of a major priority is that in Racial Understanding. In the year 1963, this committee of the Division of Christian Citizenship helped draft the 1963 Convention Resolution on Personnel Policies, had clergy representatives from the Diocese at the August and October Episcopalian Emergency Civil Rights Conferences in Washington, commended clergy of the Diocese for their redemptive involvement in areas of crisis within the bounds of our own Diocese, and kept abreast of changes in racial policies of Church related institutions in the Diocese of Pennsylvania contributed very nearly one thousand dollars to the victims of the bombings in Birmingham through the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

HEALTH AND WELFARE

In the Division of Health and Welfare Services, the major effort in 1963 was in staffing what is now the Diocesan Committee on the Aging, which moved from the study of its first priority, the needs of the chronically ill aging to a consideration of housing for the well aging — a consideration which will continue in the year ahead. Additionally, it involved members of the Department, and invited clergy within Philadelphia, to call on the City to provide more adequately for its needs in the area of child care.

REFUGEE COMMITTEE

In the Division of World Relief and Inter-Church Aid, the Refugee Committee continued in 1963 to work for the resettlement of Cubans from Miami in this Diocese. Three families arrived individually, three on a flight sponsored by the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches and ten families in October on a flight sponsored solely by the Diocese. These efforts resettled thirty adults and twelve children. Half of the twelve parishes sponsoring families had not participated in refugee resettlement previously. Several parishes not sponsoring families contributed clothing, furniture and household furnishings, also food. There has been continuing contact with many of the Cubans and other refugees previously resettled. The National Council has asked a number of times that we serve as its agent in dealing with refugees living in this community, not sponsored by this Diocese, in whom the National Council has an interest and who are in need of advice and assistance.

FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

Contributions from this Diocese to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief amounted to $19,124.89. This is gratifying, but in view of total contributions to the Fund nationally that were almost double those of 1962, those from the Diocese of Pennsylvania decreased by about $4,000.00.

With the assistance of the Bishop, and in conjunction with the Rector and Vestry of Christ Church, the Department sponsored a luncheon on World Peace addressed by the Rev. John Collins, Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral in London.

The Department anticipates bringing its priorities into sharper focus, and pursuing them, in 1964, but still keeping enough flexibility in its efforts to allow it to address itself to the unexpected, but recurring, problems which face the Church in the society in which it is called to minister.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS MARSHALL REAM
Chairman

APPENDIX H-14 DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

SUMMARY

Considered the major activity, The Church News was published ten times, including a 24-page issue in June and a 20-page issue in December...In connection with the stewardship program, we conducted six area meetings for clergy and chairmen; and published a 12-page brochure, "Your Partnership," which presented the diocesan, national and world-wide picture of how parish contributions are expended...When asked, we gave direct help to the parishes on such subjects as stewardship, every member canvass, public relations, special printings, etc...Handled press-radio releases for diocesan events and parish events which had diocesan-wide or beyond-diocese interest...Conducted a second communications workshop for parish representatives with press (daily and weekly), radio-television, public relations and lay-out experts as consultants...Supervised the printing of the Journal and Directory, with many changes in the former to streamline and reduce cost...Prepared special announcements for radio and television; had wider news coverage by this media than ever; had specially prepared tv shows...Arranged for guests from outside the diocese to appear at various parishes and functions, including radio shows.. The executive director spent a week in June in the Diocese of Harrisburg speaking at four archdeaconry meetings on subject of stewardship.

THE CHURCH NEWS

This periodical enjoyed a continuing favorable acceptance both throughout the diocese and with other dioceses and departments of National Council. The February issue was printed in color, for Lent. The June issue was 24 pages, paying special tribute to retiring Bishop Hart. The December issue was 20 pages. Other issues maintained the level of 16 pages. There have been many articles reprinted in other diocesan publications.

STEWARDSHIP

The department conducted six area meetings attended by clergy and parish chairman of the Every Member Canvass. These sessions stressed the importance of an all-year-'round stewardship program in the parishes and reviewed the mechanics of conducting both an in-church and home visitation campaign. Bishop Armstrong attended and closed each session.

DIRECT PARISH HELP

Wherever asked, or wherever we see an opportunity, the department moves to give direct help to a parish. This has taken the form of answering questions of communications, preparation of letters, advice on Every Member Canvass and specialized printings, and various other ways.

NEWS STORIES

Many of the following feature news stories came to the department's attention through parish bulletins. We thought them of sufficient importance to exploit through press and radio. They included: Christ Church; where N. J. school children sent a contribution to help with correction of damage by vandals to Christ Church cemetery. St. Paul's, Elkins Park; proposed home for the aged. Calvary Church, Rockdale; ringing of the church bells for various births in the parish. Trinity, Ambler; the story of the red rose annual payments for permanent lease. St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell; new parish, first by this name in the Diocese. Bishop Burgess, of Mass., as guest at testimonial dinner and for acolyte service. Dr. Paul Rusch (KEEP), here for testimonial dinner.

COMMUNICATIONS WORKSHOPS

A workshop on parish communications and public relations was conducted by the Department at Philadelphia Divinity School on March 21. Thirty-one persons participated in this second conference (first was Dec. 13, 1962, at Treadway Inn, St. David's). Conducting various phases of instruction and discussion were a leading weekly newspaper editor, a daily newspaper editor, a specialist in radio and television, a specialist in printed materials (make-up), and a public relations specialist.

BROCHURES

In addition to the "Your Partnership" brochure for the stewardship program, this department completed a Press Information Manual which was designed to help in the areas of communications. Also, a "welcoming" brochure in color was designed and published for four churches in the Norristown-Bridgeport area (paid for by them).

HELP TO DIOCESAN AGENCIES

Naturally, there is a continuing attitude of help with all departments, especially with respect to giving news of departmental activities reported in The Church News. However, special programs and special events received the special help of the department in getting coverage in all media of communications. We point particularly to the Girls' Friendly Society annual dinner, Cuban flights, Diocesan Convention, Spring and Fall United Thanks Offering services, special programs of Christian Social Relations, Mite Box Offering at Cathedral, etc.

JOURNAL AND DIRECTORY

In response to suggestions of this department certain Journal changes were approved with the idea of saving "a couple of thousand dollars" and making for general improvement in the use of the Journal. For the first time a color (green) was used in the cover and six colors were selected for rotating annually.

Subsequent to approval of Journal changes, it was decided to accept this department's suggestion that a directory be published (containing all frequently called persons and agencies and telephone numbers.)

It is interesting to note that the previous (1962) printing of the Journal was for 750 copies. For 1963, 1,000 copies were requested. There were 1,000 copies of the directory printed with the Journal. There were 1,000 separately bound copies of the directory published. The total of these 3,000 units cost less than the 750 units of the previous year.

CHURCHWOMEN

In addition to the attention given the United Thank Offering services, special programs (like blanket pick-up of church world service) are publicised and reported on. A program of photographs in connection with U.T.O. procedures was made and will be used in nationwide distribution by National Council.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Expanded attention was given in these areas this year. Without question the activities of this diocese were heard more on the air than ever before. In addition to multi-copy-mailings to stations, we prepared special spot announcements and slides on special days, like Lent, Theological Education Week, polio shots, etc. All regular press releases (when considered appropriate) had special treatment for air waves.

WHYY — TELEVISION

We moved in to help this agency as soon as it was in business. We were the first "outside" help for it. We have offered to be a participant in any way possible and expect to receive much air time in programs we will be able to provide. We will be working on programs for this outlet and have brought the Department of Christian Education into the picture.

GENERALLY

Special 30-minute television programs were arranged and produced for the Diocesan Convention, Life of Bishop Hart, and Veterans Week from Valley Forge Military Academy. Television coverage was made for a visit of the Rev.

John L. Collins at Christ Church, Bishop Burgess' visit, arrival of Cuban refugees, conventions, christmas programs.

One of the finest tv programs we did was the Holy Communion for the Deaf at Easter, 1962. There was much interest in this nationally in 1963 but the interest was too late. We are now working on this project with a view toward getting it distributed for next Easter....We are working on music broadcasts, tapes of which the Rev. Robert Forster has....Mrs. Goodman has been in regular communication with the chairman of the Canada radio-tv division which has had a separate division for about two years....Placed speakers on special radio shows.

SPEAKERS' DIVISION

The regular work of arranging for speakers' engagements is conducted through the Rev. Andrew Mayer. The department (outside of Mr. Mayer) takes care of publicity and arranging special radio and tv assignments. During the year Mr. Mayer placed many speakers in all areas of the diocese. Some appeared on either or both the Red Benson Show (WPEN) and the Ed Harvey Show (WCAU).

RADIO-TELEVISION

In addition to news and coverage, we did 1/2-hour tv shows for theological education Sunday; Bishop Hart's life as Diocesan with Harry K. Smith as interviewer; business of a church convention (shown day before Diocesan Convention), and Armed Forces Day from Valley Forge Military Academy.

On the Ed. Harvey Show, we had Dr. Longley (answering questions); Dr. Niemoeller; Dr. Rusch, and Jack Keavney, PR man for Anglican Church in Australia.

On the Red Benson show, we had Bishop and Mrs. Arden and Miss Greet.

CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The year 1963 was primarily one of transition for the Corporation. When the year began the Corporation lacked a director, the chaplaincy at the University of Pennsylvania was unfilled, and plans for new work were in abeyance pending the arrival of the new director. In addition, as the year progressed several personnel changes occurred in parishes where responsibilities for college work is assumed on a voluntary basis.

Early in the year a team of men, the Rev. John M. Scott and the Rev. Robert C. Chapman, were called to the work at the University of Pennsylvania and throughout the year firm foundations were laid for a fruitful work on that campus. But the primary need was for a director. The main effort of the Corporation was therefore focused on finding and calling the best person available. After extensive correspondence and interviewing of suggested persons, the Corporation called the Rev. William E. Blewett, Ph.D. as director of College Work.

Dr. Blewett's qualifications for the position include extensive parish experience, college work experience as chaplain to the University of Idaho and graduate degrees in the field of history from the University of Michigan and Michigan State University, as well as study at Oxford University, England. His parish experience includes three years of work in center-city parishes of Detroit, Michigan.

Following Dr. Blewett's arrival in July, the Corporation's administrative affairs were put in order, the volunteer and full time chaplains were provided with some over-all directions, and the Episcopal Church pressed forward with vigor its work in the ecumenical ministry to the exploding Academic Community.

The task of implementing the five-year program presented to this Convention in 1962 and which has been dormant for many months for lack of a director was begun. The first step was accomplished by the appointment of the Rev. Edward L. Lee, Jr., as full-time chaplain to Temple University. The second and third steps to be taken are the appointment of a chaplain to Drexel Institute of Technology and of a lay worker to West Chester State College. The ground-work has been laid for both these steps and provision of the Diocesan share of funds by this Convention will see them realized.

The director has initiated a program of bi-monthly sessions for chaplains to coordinate the work and to assist new men in orienting to the work. A special feature of this program is the inviting of an authority from one of the academic disciplines to 'up-date' the chaplains in that particular field. This program has been opened to all chaplains of the area on an ecumenical basis and has had favorable reception.

The Diocese is represented in several cooperative or 'ecumenical' programs by Dr. Blewett. Among these are: The Metropolitan Strategy Committee, composed of representatives of several denominational boards concerned with Christian work in educational institutions in the Philadelphia area; The Protestant Advisory Board at Temple University, which embraces the general program, The Church and World Institute Program and a ministry to the Temple Medical Campus; The Center City Christian Council; The Drexel Protestant Advisory Board; The Main Line Ecumenical Campus Committee; and subcommittees of these bodies.

Dr. Blewett has provided planning, coordination and leadership for three youth conferences in the Diocese and also for one faculty conference. A new area of ministry and witness was opened up when the Director arranged for and officiated at a special Communion service as part of the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, which met in Philadelphia. Dr. Blewett is also chairman of a provincial committee seeking to utilize the large reservoir of student volunteers in metropolitan areas on a year-round basis.

The director provides liaison with provincial and National Church personnel and programs for the academic community, and he has also been consulted by dioceses establishing programs to meet urban conditions or establishing Diocesan positions of leadership similar to his own.

A significant result of the program of conferences and related activities for students was the formation of a Volunteer Service Projects Committee of the Diocesan Canterbury Association under Dr. Blewett's guidance. The first fruit of this Committee's work is the staffing of a tutorial project at St. Bartholomew's Church in Philadelphia. Mutual responsibility, a recognized principle of the Corporation's program, has been implemented in this significant way.

Meanwhile, the opportunity grows daily. Over 100,000 persons were enrolled in the universities, colleges and schools of Metropolitan Philadelphia in the Fall of 1963. Seeking to meet the increasing demand for higher education, existing institutions have vast expansion plans, and at the same time, new "Community Colleges" are being projected. One "Community College" is scheduled to open this Fall. The College Work display at this Convention dramatically illustrates what is happening. The Corporation is determined, with the support of the Diocese, to provide the highest caliber ministry to this important and rapidly expanding mission field.

The Corporation is grateful to the volunteer chaplains who carry out a vital aspect of the program and to the faculty and administrators who not only live the Faith, but provide advice and guidance and assistance in carrying out the formal program of the Church in the Academic Community. The Corporation also records its confidence in Dr. Blewett, whose high recommendations are being verified by the significant work he has accomplished, as well as by the vision, imagination and integrity with which he seeks to carry out this ministry.

One prediction will close this report. The effects of urbanization and automation will place more and more emphasis upon education, and the Academic Community will become an even more significant component of our society. The opportunity thus presented to the Church implies an expansion of the specialized ministry to the Academic Community. But, this ministry must always be recognized as an extension of the parish ministry. It is a specialized ministry, but it is a resource for the basic ministry of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HAZEN HARDY, ESQ.
President

APPENDIX H-16

REPORT OF THE REVEREND LAYTON P. ZIMMER BISHOP'S REPRESENTATIVE IN AREAS OF RACIAL TENSION

Bishop DeWitt, delegates to Convention, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Bishop has asked me to share with you the understandings that led him, with Bishop Armstrong, to borrow me from my parish and assign me to special work as Consultant to and Representative of the Bishop in areas of racial tension.

We know that this is a field of fear and hostility, of separation and danger. In confronting the racial problems of our time we must deal with revolution and counter-revolution within our society and with terrible ambivalances in the hearts and minds of men. The positive, healing ministry of the Church is often frustrated by the fantastic rapidity with which events in this field move. Communications are inadequate; accurate information is too often belated; emotions are high.

We also realize that the Church is called to minister to people on both sides of the issue. Children of God are on either side. There is real concern for men and ideals on both sides. We realize this just as we know that there is blindness and sin on each side of the issue.

The Church must exercise its ministry to all men in this controversy. But the Gospel commits us to prophetic insight and faithful witness as well to pastoral ministry. The facts of our day demand of us such insight and witness, without which the word of Christ would be ignored.

My task, with the advisory committee for which I have asked (made up of Mr. Henry Dolan, Mr. Marshall Ream, The Rev. Jesse Anderson and The Rev. Arthur Barnhart), will be to assist the Bishop in ascertaining facts and in making the decisions which will guide our Diocese through the troubled times which are now close at hand.

Many of you have been kind enough to offer me your congratulations on my appointment to this responsibility. I thank you for this; but I need your prayers even more.

APPENDIX H-17

COMMITTEE ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The Committee held four meetings during the year but its work has been largely carried on through the individual interests and responsibilities assigned to its members. They are:

The Rev. Arthur Barnhart, Albert N. Brown, Stanhope S. Browne, Esq., secretary, the Rev. Eugene Lefebvre, the Rev. James R. MacColl, the Rev. Robert MacDonald, William B. McIlwaine, Mrs. Charles Myers, Mrs. Edward J. Parnum, Louis Marshall Ream, Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers, the Rev. John Skinner, the Rev. Alfred Vail, and the Rev. Robert Wainwright.

Also added to the Committee in the spring of 1964 were the Rev. Walter Strickland, who serves as representative of the Diocese on the board of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches; and three newly elected members of the board of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches, the Rev. Robert Dubose, Miss Beryl Newman and Fred Witcop.

Our primary responsibility is to keep informed of the rapid and widespread developments in the 'age of ecumenicity' and to share this information with others in the Diocese. Much of the work of study and education is carried out through the Department of Ecumenical Relations of the Episcopal Churchwomen under the able direction of Mrs. Edward Parnum.

Another responsibility is to secure support within the Diocese for the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. This year the membership and finance campaign was directed by Mrs. Charles Myers, with the assistance of other members of this Committee, and the following additional persons:

Mrs. Richard N. Lindabury, Mrs. Charles F. Perkins, Harry Broadbent, F. Woodson Hancock, Jr., Edward B. Sonnheim, and Dr. Raymond C. Snyder.

Ten new member churches raised the total of parishes in the Diocese, who are member churches of the Philadelphia Council of Churches, to 93. The Episcopal Church is well represented in the leadership of the Council. The Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr., serves as vice-president; the Rev. Arthur Barnhart and Miss Beryl Newman are department chairmen. In addition to the three newly elected members listed above, Mr. Browne, Mrs. Parnum, Mrs. Rogers and the Rev. Alfred Vail also serve as members of the board of directors.

An Episcopalian has also been appointed to an important position on the staff of the Council. Mr. Henry Hines, a senior at the Philadelphia Divinity School, with extensive experience in radio and television before entering seminary, will take up his post as executive director of the Department of Radio and Television of the Council of Churches following his graduation and ordination in May.

A major responsibility of the Committee this year was to assist in preparation for the Assembly of the National Council of Churches held at Convention Hall in early December. A memorable event was the ecumenical dinner, attended by some 300 persons, including many of the leaders of our Diocese, at which Peter Day, the newly appointed ecumenical officer of the National Council made his first public statement of policy.

Other work continued by the Committee included preparation of a discussion guide for lay people entitled "An Introductory Study of the Ecumenical Movement," the preparation of a number of articles for The Church News, and Mr. MacDonald's assistance to the Joint Commission on Cooperation with the Eastern and Old Catholic Churches.

The year has been marked by a significant growth in dialogue between ourselves and clergy of the Roman Catholic Church. Many of our congregations have participated in special panel discussions or interdenominational conversations on Unity. The ACU invited clergy to hear Bishop Wright, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Pittsburgh, discuss the Vatican Council. Roman Catholic parish priests are, for the first time, taking an active part in local ministerial associations.

In the last year our attention has been drawn particularly to our relationship to various Councils of Churches and to the new climate of charity emerging from the Vatican Council. It is hoped that in the year ahead more attention can be given to the progress of negotiations on actual unity with other churches in which representatives of our church have been officially involved. In particular, we commend to the Diocese close study of Digest of the Proceedings of the Consultation on Church Union, George L. Hunt, Editor, Box 69, Fanwood, N.J. We also hope that more parishes will make use of the new study guides on the Ecumenical Movement recently published by The National Council of our own church.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. LONG, JR.,
Chairman

APPENDIX H-19
DEPARTMENT OF LAYMEN'S WORK

Since our last year's report; in fact, since the formation of this department, we have been earnestly studying our responsibilities in the "work of the Church" and the active means whereby it could be put into affect.

After a rather successful Conference for the Laymen in the fall, which was formulated for us by the General Division of Laymen's Work of our National Church Council, we proceeded to continue some of the functions of previous "seasons"

However, we believe the fact, we now have recommendations for every parish and mission in the Diocese for the Ministry of the Laymen, is something which we have been looking for, these few years. Not that these recommendations are of themselves new. But that we see them more clearly as the work of the lay ministry and we shall, with the Grace of God, carry them forward.

Our department has decided to discontinue the use of the name, "Keyman" which was decided upon by the General Division of Laymen's Work, except to recognize the fact, that there is such a person as a keyman in each and every parish and mission; that person being the ordained minister. In its place, we have selected the term; Director/Chairman of the Ministry of the Laymen, to be used in each parish or mission.

We recognize our main duty as Laymen is to assist the ordained clergy in the work of the Church as contrasted to the Church's work.

Opportunities for the laymen are possible in the following fields and in which we believe the clergy will be thankful for assistance,:-

Family Calls: good will calls on active members.
good will calls on families who attend irregularly.
on new families in the area of the parish.
calls on those presumably disaffected.

Calls on Individuals: in hospitals.
elderly and lonely.
the blind.
in nursing homes.

Services: altar flower distribution.
transportation to church services of elderly, etc.
correspondence with those in armed services.

This is now the department's ultimate goal. Let us watch the progress of its implementation.

Respectfully submitted,

RAYMOND C. SNYDER,
Chairman

APPENDIX H-20
DIOCESAN LIBRARY

The first full year of our newly arranged library did well with 57 books out at a time, divided fairly equally between lay people and clergy. There were 57 new books purchased and 10 given us from Bishop Hart's Library.

Ten church magazines were subscribed to for the reading room: "The Anglican Theological Review", "The Christian Century", "The Churchman", "The Ecumenical Review", "The Episcopalian", "The Hibbert Journal", "The Historical Magazine", "The Living Church", "The Witness", and "Cross Currents". Three magazines were donated: "The Diocesan Church News", "The American Church News", and "The Anglican World".

The list of books purchased during 1963 was mailed to all the clergy of the Diocese, and lay people using the library. The new books were listed in The Church News. The subjects were on the Bible, Biography, Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, Church, Church History, Creeds, Church Unity, Prayer and Worship, Spiritual Therapy, Missions, Theology, Philosophy, Psychology, and other religious writings and reference books.

At the Annual Clergy Conference an offering was taken to supply the library with books on urban study. Some books have been purchased and have proved popular with those interested in urban work and study.

The year was saddened by the loss of the chairman of our Board of Control, the Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, LL.D., who died August 28 while in France. Dr. Haushalter was a brilliant and well-read chairman for our library, and a splendid person to work with, always friendly and gracious in his associations with the board and the librarian. He served the library as chairman for more than 11 years while he was rector of St. Luke and the Epiphany. He is sadly missed by all of us.

Respectfully submitted,

THE REV. CHARLES F. EHL

The Diocesan Library Board of Control

APPENDIX H-21
RESEARCH AND PLANNING GROUP

Staff work on the Diocesan Self Study, authorized by the Convention of 1961, was begun in June, 1963. The initial task was the collection of data for a map, copies of which appear in the Journal of the 179th Annual Convention, showing the location of all parish and mission churches in the Diocese.

All rectors and vicars were asked to name committees in their congregations to oversee the conduct of the parish phase of the Self Study. In addition, the Rev. Arthur C. Bamhart, executive secretary, and the Rev. John A. Schultz, research consultant of the Research and Planning Group, secured 50 laymen from various sections of the Diocese to act as "trainers" and liaison personnel for the Self Study in the parishes.

Robert A. Allen and David West, vice-chairmen of the Group, are supervising this portion of the Self Study on the Diocesan level. They have been meeting with groups of clergy and parish chairmen to explain the procedures of the various phases of the study.

Under the supervision of Edwin Skinner, a land-use map for the five-county area of the Diocese will be prepared. Data will be included on kinds of housing, direction of population growth, industrialization of neighborhoods, etc.

At the completion of the Self Study, a report will be made by the General Division of Research and Field Study of National Council, to each parish and and to the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,
Chairman

APPENDIX H-22
PAROCHIAL HISTORY COMMITTEE

The Parochial History Committee is charged with gathering together pamphlets, histories, and other papers and clippings of interesting events of the several parishes and missions of the Diocese. These are filed in containers in a room on the fourth floor of the Church House. We depend upon the cooperation of the parishes in sending us material of interest. These records are of course available to those who are searching for information about the past history of their parish. We also keep a card index of dates and important events and personalities of every parish and mission.

Every parish should have a person, interested in history, whose duty it would be to keep a record of important happenings. A loose leaf scrap book is an excellent place to file clippings and pictures, which will prove of great interest in years to come, or when the time comes to write a history of the parish.

An attempt is being made to print in the Diocesan Journal the earliest date for the founding of the parish, as well as the date on which the parish was admitted into Convention.

If you have recently celebrated an anniversary, please send us pamphlets or other historical sketches which were published.

THE CONFERENCE CENTER

In 1963 Denbigh was in use on 209 days. It was used by 97 diocesan and 35 non-diocesan groups, totalling 4380 individuals. The Center served 16,910 meals.

These figures include five summer youth conferences attended by about 400 individuals.

APPENDIX J-1
CONVOCAION OF CHESTER

We feel that the work of the Convocation of Chester progressed very nicely during the year 1963.

In the fall of the year it was with great satisfaction that the new church building in Williston Township, St. Francis-in-the-Fields, was officially dedicated. It is a lovely church and should serve the community well. There is a slow but steady growth in this community and the future of this mission is very bright. As we predicted, that with the completion of the building there would be a decisive growth in attendance, which prediction is being realized. The vicar, the Rev. Edwin A. Garratt, III, is doing excellent work.

St. Christopher's, Oxford, where the Rev. Joseph E. Trimble, Jr. is the Vicar — the church edifice of this congregation, which was dedicated in the spring of 1962, has proved to be very serviceable as well as attractive. The service now averages about 110 in attendance and we feel that the future of this mission is very bright.

In the summer of this year, the Rev. Wallace B. Houston, Jr., was appointed as vicar of St. James' Church, Green Ridge, and replaced the Rev. John A. Maguire. A new vicarage is being built and will replace the old vicarage, which was sold. The work in this mission is progressing very nicely and we have every reason to believe that with the able leadership of the vicar, as well as the many dedicated lay persons, the time is not too far off that this mission could apply for parish status.

St. Andrew's, Belmont Hills, under the leadership of its vicar, the Rev. Hendrik B. Koning, has shown a tremendous renewed interest and growth in attendance. Extensive repair work and improvement has been carried out, most of it paid for by the mission itself. Eleven new members were confirmed and an average attendance of eighty has been reported. Total offerings and pledges for the year amounted to about $7500. The spirit in this mission is high, which is reflected in its services and other activities.

Ascension, Parkesburg, where the Rev. Anthony J. Mattes has been resident vicar for about two-and-one-half years, has seen a steady growth under his excellent leadership. Much work has been done there. A new vicarage was purchased and all-in-all Ascension Church, Parkesburg, is making a real contribution to the spiritual life of the community.

The Rev. Anthony J. Mattes is also in charge of St. John's, Compass. The large Sunday School attendance required better facilities. An addition to their parish hall was completed in the year 1963. The buildings are kept in excellent repair. The vicar receives much help from the able and dedicated men and women of this mission.

Ascension, West Chester, and St. Cyril's, Coatesville, have a new vicar, the Rev. William H. Hill. For a while these missions had their services conducted by the Rev. Kenneth C. Slagle, Ph.D., who took over when the Rev. Cecil H. Cowan resigned to take work in Tennessee. We are indeed very much indebted to Father Slagle for his work in these two missions and also for the work he is carrying on at the present time at St. Mary's, Chester.

The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, who for over eight years was vicar of St. Mark's, Honeybrook, and St. Mary's, Warwick, resigned to become the director of the Conference Center. He was replaced by the Rev. E. Marshall Bevans, who started his work in this Diocese in October, 1963. We want to congratulate these two missions on the excellent way in which they keep their buildings. Both St. Mark's and St. Mary's continue on a sound basis.

St. Luke's, Eddystone, under the leadership of their vicar, the Rev. William X Smith enjoyed a good year. If a drop in communicants was shown in its records it was due to the change in the definition of the canon on communicant status. The mission has about one hundred families on its books and has shown an approximate attendance of about eighty.

The congregation of St. Mary's, Chester, was saddened by the sudden death of its vicar, the Rev. Reginald Kent, who during the years he had been their leader, had endeared himself not only to the congregation but to the community as a whole. Dr. Slagle has consented to take care of the services until such time a new vicar will be appointed. Under his leadership, as well as that of John W. Davis, the senior warden, the mission is carrying on. I personally feel that there never was a time in the history of this mission that the congregation has shown more dedication to the Lord's work than it is at the present time.

St. Luke's, Highland Gardens, is carrying on its work under the leadership of its vicar, the Rev. Lewis H. Worrell. Because of so many uncertain conditions in the community, this mission is having a difficult time and a study of the prospects of this mission will be made in the early part of 1964.

I am very much indebted to the excellent work of the various committees of the Convocation, especially the Property Committee, the Program Committee and the members of the Executive Committee for their continual help and support, which makes the work of the dean so much easier. Particularly, I would like to express my thanks for the help and support of the secretary and treasurer, John S. Eiseman.

To the Women of the Convocation, under the leadership of its president, Mrs. Victor G. Perrin, my sincere thanks for their ever present help.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR.
Dean

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Congratulations! You did help to make this a good year for the Church. Forty-seven Churches were in attendance at Spring Meeting, and forty-nine in the fall. Contributions totaled $3,202.50 from fifty-five Churches, as compared with $2,760.50 from fifty-two in 1962. This is excellent participation.

Read the Treasurer's Report carefully. We paid off the 1962-64 project — $5,000.00 to St. Francis-in-the-Fields, Sugartown. We gave $1,500.00 to St. John's, Compass, for Church School, and $150.00 for a suburban assist with an urban Church experiment which has attracted nationwide interest. Remember Jim Maxwell?

Program emphasis was on Christian Social Relations: (1) in volunteer services at institutions within this Convocation, (2) in race relations. A request for prayers for two condemned men and for the abolition of capital punishment was a shattering and moving experience.

What have we done to involve ourselves in the struggle for social justice and civil rights, as Bishop Lichtenberger urged us to do? This is a challenging and clear-cut call to the Christian conscience, — and a continuing one.

We went to see St. Christopher's, Oxford, and had a delightful time. A former project was a gift of $4,000.00 toward this building.

The Executive Committee has met four times, and a good bit of special committee work has been done: — (1) a new set of By-Laws shortening the term of office from four to three years was drafted; (2) nominees for two offices have been chosen: for Vice-President — Mrs. Albert K. Lennan; for Secretary — Mrs. Thomas D. Brown.

I am looking forward to our work together in 1964. Let us join forces in helping to build a better world.

President

APPENDIX J-2

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The first order of business is an expression of appreciation to Dean Philemon Sturges for his splendid leadership and oversight of the missions of the convocations. Much was accomplished during his tenure of office. CHRIST CHURCH, EDDINGTON, was relocated, a new site purchased, a rectory built and a new site purchased, a rectory built and a new church erected. GRACE CHURCH, HULMEVILLE was able to become self-sufficient. HOUSE OF PRAYER was given a new opportunity to meet the challenge of a changing community by integrating the parish. The vote of thanks given to Dean Sturges expressed the unanimous feeling of all the members of the convocation, both clerical and lay. Dean Sturges was called into service and his efforts were well expended. To him we owe a great debt of gratitude.

At the October meeting of convocation a report was given by the Dean of the physical condition of all mission properties. The needs of the various missions were reviewed and the report was recorded in the minutes.

A program of parishes sponsoring missions was instituted. In order to save the vicars the embarrassment of making semi-annual reports to the convocation, the Dean has requested the sponsoring parishes to make the report. It will take time to test the program, but we are confident it will help improve the moral of the missions and stimulate a greater interest on the part of the parishes for the missionary program.

In June of '63 a social gathering of the clergy was held at Collegeville Inn. The question of a Church House at the Cathedral Site was discussed and it was the unanimous expression of the gathering that such a move would be most desirable.

In January the Dean addressed the winter meeting of the Women of the Convocation of St. Matthias, West Oak Lane. An opportunity was given the Dean to define the role of the Dean and to present some obstacles to an effective fulfillment of the job. The women are at present attempting to evaluate the effectiveness of the women's program and to find ways of stimulating a greater interest so as to involve more parishes.

The Strategy and New Sites Committee, under the direction of the Rev. William Mills, Jr., is at present involved in a program of evaluating the need of new sites. A number of trips have been arranged involving many of the clergy in the Bucks County area. The Rev. Dr. Ronald A. Wiley has been most helpful in exploring possibilities of new work in the Wrightown area.

We are indebted to Dr. Thomas G. Ott for his excellent assistance in arranging the programs for the meetings of convocation and to the host churches for their generous hospitality.

We are confident that our next report will show the results of the combined efforts of many of our clergy and lay who are anxious to improve the functions of convocation and strengthen the missions and to help parishes to a new vision of the role of the Church in our challenging and demanding age.

The Dean expresses his appreciation to the members of the Executive Committee who have been most cooperative and helpful.

Respectfully submitted,

THE REV. ALBERT F. FISCHER, JR.
Dean

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCAATION OF GERMANTOWN

In the year of 1963, the first meeting of the Women of the Convocation of Germantown was held at Zion Church. Communion was celebrated by the Rector, Rev. Robert S. Deacon and the Dean, Very Rev. Philemon F. Sturges. The Program for the day was the topic of the year, "To Whom Do We Minister."

The Spring Meeting was held at St. Andrew's-in-the-Field Church, Somerton, and Mrs. Oliver J. Hart and Mrs. Siter Owen were honored for their leadership and services to the women of the Diocese.

The Fall Meeting held at Christ Church, Eddington saw the newest Church of the Convocation. Dr. T. Gordon Ott reported on the Anglican Congress held in Toronto, and showed slides of the delegates and visitors to the Congress.

The Annual Annunciation Day Communion of Bucks County sponsored by the Women of the Convocation was held at All Saints, Fallsington. The Rev. Curtis W. Hanners Jr. Vicar, was in charge. The Rev. George W. Davison was celebrant, and the Very Rev. Lloyd G. Chattin, Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, N. J., was the preacher.

CONVOCAATION OF NORRISTOWN

Our spring meeting was held at St. Peter's Church, Glenside. The Rev. Herbert Brown, associate secretary of the Philadelphia Presbytery, was our speaker. He outlined the way the Presbyterian Church planned for and established new missions.

Our fall meeting was held at All Hallow's Church, Wyncote. The speakers were the Rev. Charles Long, Jr. and L. Marshall Ream. They showed slides and told of the program of the Anglican Congress which they attended in Toronto in August.

St. Dunstan's Church in Blue Bell: The most exciting event of the year was the establishment in September of St. Dunstan's Church in Blue Bell. The Rev. Robert Cook was appointed as vicar. St. Dunstan's is meeting temporarily in a converted three-car garage behind the Blue Bell Country Store. Thanks to the generosity of a devoted Episcopalian, they own a 9 1/2 acre tract of land in a wonderful location on Skippack Pike. Sometime this year they expect to begin construction of a permanent church on that location. They already have 51 communicants, and an average Sunday attendance of 107. A number of parishes have contributed money and furnishings, as have the Women of the Convocation.

Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown: This mission continues to thrive under the direction of the vicar, the Rev. Peter A. Greenfield. There has been a marked growth in all areas of church life. An additional 10 acres of ground has been purchased with a house on it. The house is used for church school and office space. A 1600 sq. ft. addition has been finished which practically doubles the church seating and increases the parish house facilities. It is hoped that a rectory can be built in the near future. They are planning to be hosts for the spring meeting of 1964.

The Church of the Epiphany, Royersford: During the summer, the Rev. John C. Kolb resigned to accept a call from Holy Apostle's Chapel, Penn Wynne. In September, the new vicar, the Rev. Richard Fenn, who had been in India for several years, took office. The church continues its program of debt reduction and moves steadily toward parochial status.

The year 1963 was one of great progress for the missions of our convocation. We are very proud of the three vicars of our convocation. We are indeed fortunate to find three such able and experienced men. As always, we are greatly indebted to the work done by the Women of the Convocation under the leadership of Mrs. Noreen. My first year as dean has been a great privilege and very rewarding experience.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT M. WAINWRIGHT,

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

There are 26 parishes and 3 missions within the convocation. We have four meetings a year, two day meetings and two evening meetings, May and October.

Last May, 1963, the women contributed $1000 to Good Shepherd Mission, Hilltown; and to St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell, $306.59.

We took a collection at the October meeting and a sum of $77 was realized, and sent to St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell.

We had 100 per cent of the parishes contribute to the convocation. All contributions for the year 1964 will be sent to St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell.

Respectfully yours,

MRS. ERNEST NOREEN,
President

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The spring meeting of the convocation was held at Grace Church and the Incarnation. John Halko, of the Greater Phila. Council of Churches, addressed the group at dinner, speaking on population changes and trends in North Philadelphia.

Of special interest was the Poplar Street redevelopment, because of its effect on the Church of the Advent, York Ave. and Spring Garden St. This Mission is holding services on a stand-by basis until the redevelopment is completed. Mr. Halko also spoke of the Kensington area, and of the Delaware Expressway which would affect the people of Grace Church and Incarnation, and of Holy Redeemer, Polish. Five of the nine missions in the convocation are located in the Kensington area.

The fall meeting was held at St. George's Church, Richmond, to mark the beginning of a joint venture with Holy Redeemer, Polish, worshipping at St. George's and sharing the facilities. The Rev. Arthur Bamhart, Exec. Sec'y. Dept. of Research & Planning, spoke at the dinner on the subject of the coming Diocesan Self Study.

As mentioned above, Holy Redeemer lost their church and vicarage on Richmond St. in September due to the condemnation of properties for the Delaware Expressway. St. George's, which is only two blocks away, offered to share with them their facilities, and the two congregations are worshipping in St. George's.

In June, the Rev. James E. Morris was appointed vicar to St. Mary of the Annunciation. Since Mr. Morris was in deacon's orders, the Rev. Charles Hulet, and the dean, exchanged pulpits on alternate months until he was ordained to the priesthood. In that way, the people of St. Mary's had a monthly celebration of Holy Communion.

A new work was started at St. Bartholomew's early in 1964, but plans for it began in December of '63. Capt. William C. Phy, Church Army, organized a tutoring plan for children in grade and junior high school, with the help of college students on a volunteer basis. The Rev. William E. Blewett, chairman of the Commission on College Work, was helpful in obtaining the college students for this work.

PHYSICAL PROPERTIES:

Several of the mission properties continue in need of considerable repairs. The congregations are small, and the buildings large, and the congregations are hard pressed simply to meet current expenses. The Diocese has been able to help these missions to make emergency repairs.

All Souls for the Deaf: Replaced a rusted and condemned fire escape, from the 2nd floor of the parish house for $425. The mission purchased and installed railings for the rectory steps for $63. on their own.

Church of the Advent: Fr. Bak continued to make repairs to roof of parish hall, and painting of interior of same from moneys already allocated for this work.

Holy Redeemer: The property was sold, settlement made for $82,500. Much of this money will be needed at St. George's for a new heating system, replacing rotted woodwork, and erecting a new vicarage.

St. Ambrose: For minor repairs to the vicarage, $185.

St. Barnabas: On their own, the people of this mission have done a great deal of painting and minor repairs, paying for the materials themselves. This is but one indication of the new spirit within this mission to the Puerto Ricans.

St. Bartholomew's: Emergency repairs have been made on plumbing of church and rectory for $385., and an additional $60. was spent to repair a broken stone railing for the front steps. They were able to repair some broken plaster, caused by the plumbing leaks, this with their own funds.

St. Mary of the Annunciation: Were given $500. toward a new gas furnace for the church. Fr. Biagini had been saving this fund for several years, and had half enough for the new furnace. Also, the rectory was painted, and a tile floor laid for $104.

St. Nathaniel's: $2,000. was given to this mission to rebuild their electric organ. The people had raised the other half of the needed amount.

REV. R. SHERWOOD VAN ATTA,
Dean

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The regular April meeting of the Convocation was held at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The following officers were elected:

The Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg to succeed himself as Dean, for a four-year term.

For one-year terms the following: Dr. Raymond C. Snyder, secretary, of St. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Sts.; Neale C. Bringham, treasurer of the Church of the Holy Trinity, 19th St. and W. Rittenhouse Square; the Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., clerical delegate to the Diocesan Executive Council, rector, St. Simon the Cyrenian, 22nd and Reed Sts.; Edward J. Parnum, lay delegate to the Diocesan Executive Council, Gloria Dei (Old Swede's), 916 Swanson St.

The Dean appointed the following as the property committee of the Convocation:

Benjamin F. Ashwood, Prince of Peace Church, chairman; Roy Walters, St. Paul's Church, and the Rev. John R. Logan, of St. Simon's.

One outstanding service during the year was an evening service on the eve of Thanksgiving Day, arranged as a Convocation-sponsored service with the Rev. Cuthbert Pratt, D.D., making arrangements. The offering was for the Episcopal Hospital. At least 14 of the clergymen out of 18 in the Convocation attended. In 1964 we plan another such service in another Convocation Church.

The October meeting was held at St. Elisabeth's Chapel, 16th and Mifflin Sts.

The year 1963 was rather a sad year because two outstanding rectors were taken into God's Holy Keeping.

The Rev. Thomas Parker, D.D., rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, 15th and Porter Sts., died on Feb. 10th. He became rector in 1938 and served on many committees and commissions in the Convocation and the Diocese. He served as Dean from 1947 until 1959.

On Aug. 28, while on vacation in Europe, the Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, L.L.D. was taken into God's Holy Keeping. Dr. Haushalter served in many capacities in his church, the community and in other outstanding work. The Convocation sent memorial letters to Mrs. Parker and to Mrs. Haushalter.

The Rev. James C. Blackburn became rector of St. Paul's Church on Sept. 16, 1963. The Rev. Frederick R. Isacksen became rector of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany on Dec. 1.

The Rev. Bruce P. Williamson, D.D., continues to oversee the work at the Church of the Crucifixion, 807 Bainbridge St., as well as being rector at St. Mary's Church, 1831 Bainbridge St.

The April meeting was held at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Tues., April 22, 1963. After a short business meeting and devotions, a panel consisting of Mrs. Cuthbert Bazett, Mrs. Walter Bartholomew, Mrs. Burton Long and Mrs. Ephraim McLean, with Mrs. Alan Evans as moderator, discussed "The Church on the Rim of East Asia". This was most interesting and informative.

On Oct. 22, we met at the Church of St. Elisabeth which was celebrating its' 25th Anniversary. The speaker was the Rev. William Sheppard, who has done a tremendous work at St. Barnabas in Kensington and also in Porto Rico. He spoke about the latter and showed his beautiful slides. He is a fine and dedicated speaker.

In January, we met as is usual, at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany. The Bell Telephone Company generously presented two interesting films, one a concert by the Bell Telephone Orchestra, with Zino Francescatti, world-famous violinist as soloist. This was followed by a beautiful tour of "Pennsylvania, the Keystone of the Nation". After the program, the Women of St. Luke's served tea and home-made cakes.

All of our programs are preceded by devotions and a short business meeting. We contribute to the following:

The Chinese Christian Church, the May Fete of the Episcopal Hospital, the Elisabeth Price Martin League at P.G.H., the Summer Work at St. Andrews' Church, the Summer Bible School at St. Simeon's Church and the Divinity School. We provide a Christmas treat for the Church of the Crucifixion.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX J-6

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The spring meeting was held at St. Andrew's Church, 36th and Baring Sts., April 25, beginning with a service of Evening Prayer. Officiating at the service were the dean and the Rev. Edward P. Rementer, rector of St. Andrew's Church.

Following the service, the business meeting was called to order and the Rev. Arthur Wooley, rector St. Barnabas, Haddington, was introduced as a new convocation member. Also introduced was the Rev. Robert C. Chapman, curate at St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village.

The dean read a letter from the Rev. Donald Heist, pastor of the Incarnation Lutheran Church, saying the governing board of said church had not taken action regarding the $65,000 offer by the Diocese for their locale as a new edifice for St. Monica's Mission.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted. Wells Stevens, treasurer, expressed his thanks to the convocation for their one hundred per cent dues response. The convocation, on the whole, is in good financial condition.

The report on the missions of the convocation was then presented. Father Dubose reported that the spirit at St. Cyprian's is excellent, but there is a question as to how long the present congregation can continue under the present plan of re-development in the Eastwick area. Father Davis reported that at St. Monica's there is a membership of 635 and that a move will be made for independent status. Dr. Gilbert, rector of St. James' Church, Kingsessing, moved that $200 from the convocation be made available to St. Monica's for their future plans. This motion was passed. Father Rementer reported for St. Andrew's stating that the situation is good and that progress is being made in securing the interest of the residents of his area. He also outlined the plan for the summer program which will involve a trained staff.

Dr. Gilbert reported for the Nominating Committee. The following were elected: dean, the Rev. Nathaniel C. Acton; treasurer, Wells Stevens; secretary, the Rev. Frederick M. Brooks; delegates to Executive Council, the Rev. Matthew Davis and Claude Gilkeyson.

At the evening session, the convocation was addressed by the Rev. Clayton K. Hewett, rector of The Church of The Atonement, Morton. He presented a most inspiring address on the role of the Church and its present challenge.

The Fall Meeting of the convocation was held at St. Barnabas Church, Haddington, on October 24, beginning with a service of Evening Prayer. The dean and the Rev. Arthur Wooley, rector of St. Barnabas, officiated.

At the business meeting, Father Rementer requested that the kitchen floor beams at St. Andrew's Church be repaired. The dean recommended that $100 be allocated from the Convocation Strategy Committee Fund for this purpose.

Dr. Bomberger, Chairman of the Strategy Committee stated that there was no direct report, but opened way for a discussion of the situation at St. Cyprian's, Eastwick. Father Dubose, vicar of St. Cyprian's, stated that things are uncertain and slow in the development of the Eastwick area. There are still 17 families at St. Cyprian's, and 90 per cent of the membership now comes from West Philadelphia. Attempts have been made for the re-location of the church.

Considerable discussion then followed relative to the possibility of effecting a merger of St. Cyprian's Mission with parishes within whose bounds many of the members of St. Cyprian's reside. The same plan was suggested for St. Monica's Mission. The Bishop is to be consulted on this matter and the dean to report on the same at the next convocation meeting.

At the evening session, a most interesting address was presented on the missionary work of the Church in India.

As dean of the convocation, I express my thanks and appreciation for the devoted and dedicated leadership of the clergy and laity. Although the convocation is small in point of number of parishes and missions, an effective work is being carried on in our area.

Through the dedication of the officers and members of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Convocation, extensive assistance has been given toward the general welfare of our missions. To this segment of the convocation, grateful and sincere thanks is extended.

Respectfully submitted,

THE REV. NATHANIEL C. ACTON,
Dean

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

There were three meetings of the women in 1963.

January 17 was observed as Education Day at the Church of the Holy Apostles and Mediator, 51st and Spruce Sts.; Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m. was celebrated by Dean Acton and Dr. Bomberger. A brief business meeting was held in the parish house, followed by a sandwich lunch. Beverage and dessert was provided by the women of the host parish. Mrs. Karl Beyer, vice-president-at-large of the Diocese and treasurer of Province III, gave an enlightening and interesting explanation of the work of the Province.

The spring meeting was held at St. Andrew's, 36th and Baring Sts., on April 25. The service of Evening Prayer for men and women of the convocation was read by Dean Acton, assisted by the Rev. Edward Rementer, rector of the parish.

Following the service, the women held their meeting in the parish hall. Mrs. Minturn Wright, of the Department of Prayer and Worship, was the speaker. She emphasized the importance of prayer and the need to give time and effort to practice a life of prayer.

A seminarian, Jim Maxwell, told of the summer project being planned at St. Andrew's and the surrounding area.

The fall meeting was held on Oct. 24, at St. Barnabas', 64th St. and Haverford Ave. The service of Evening Prayer was conducted by Dean Acton and the Rev. Arthur Wooley, Jr., rector of the parish. The speaker was Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr., president of Episcopal Churchwomen. Her subject was "The Role of Women in the Life of the Church."

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The President's Report

Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr.

Last June the Christian Education Department of the Women held its annual Leadership Training Day for parish officers at the Conference Center. The Rev. Don Farrow was the leader. At the close of a lively day of discussion he remarked casually and imprudently that perhaps the best way to solve leadership and attendance problems in women's groups might be to abolish them altogether! He is not the first to have entertained this radical and relaxing solution. I hasten to add for any clergy who are harboring similar notions that women don't abolish easily.

For one thing they artfully removed the possibility of abandonment of women's auxiliaries by themselves giving up the name "auxiliary", which leaves us with the proposition of getting rid of "The Women of The Church" which is quite another matter.

I had worried, myself, about the possible collapse of women's churchwork in the Diocese under my aegis as a most embarrassing personal possibility and was greatly reassured by reading Abraham Lincoln's wise words about the presidency.

Lincoln said: "While the people retain their virtue and vigilance, no administration by any extreme of wickedness or folly, can very seriously injure the government in the short space of four years."

Looking back over this first year, it has been dominated by two major themes and two new Bishops whose spiritual leadership and kindly encouragement have been invaluable.

As a new president preparing a year end report I have been struck with the extensive variety of women's activity in the Diocese. Some 30 Diocesan Departments, Committees, Leagues, Societies, Guilds, Shops, and one Club are busily carrying out manifold aspects of Churchwork.

Women are fortunately in a position to be experimental. They can involve themselves in poor risk ventures. When they fail, they are not THE Church falling on its face.

Women are not hampered in their Christian outreach, by worrying over much about the historic function of the Church, the Canon Law, and all that. They can be a far flung frontier of the Church in the world.

I hope to see the women make greater use of their peculiar freedom and potentiality. I would, however, be sorry to see traditional women's work of learning, praying, sewing together cut off as long as there are women who are cheered and strengthened by it.

But the pity is, when women's desire to serve God, thru His Church, in His world, is limited to semi-social get-togethers.

We have been stirring up the social conscience and sense of Diocesan responsibility of women this year with talks and workshops on the Clergy Conference theme of "Christians in an Urban Society"; at Christian Social Relations—Diocesan Affairs Keynotes, at three area Christian Education Workshops (in cooperation with Diocesan Christian Education Department), at a meeting for parish presidents and treasurers, at the Diocesan Board, and at a dozen parish and convocation groups. The Women's first hand communications system is quite fabulous! On this subject alone, we have spoken to some 400 women. At our Department meetings these women are delegates who in turn report back to their parishes. "Christians in an Urban Society" has been one major theme.

As a Diocesan President, I am a member of the Provincial Board of Episcopal Churchwomen. At the annual meeting last December in Washington, we were given a run down on Triennial preparation for our women. This year, delegates to Triennial are not only to report back to the parishes after General Convention, they are to prepare the ground ahead of time by reading up on and programming the themes for Triennial, one of which is "The Changing Roles and Opportunities of Women in Church and Society." This is the second theme and has been a popular subject. How we love to talk about ourselves! We recommend to any clergy who are wondering what has happened to their women and what to do about them to read Cythia Wedel's "Employed Women and the Church".

We are constantly seeking ways to improve our meetings and our means of reaching more of the women with the program of the Church. We have tried making meetings more convenient by repeating them in different areas and times. This does attract more women, but is also more work for the planners. Perhaps the convocations can be put to better use in this respect. We have tried combining department keynotes this past year where there was overlapping of interest. Diocesan Affairs combined with Christian Social Relations on the work at the Advocate. We joined together the United Thank Offering and Home Department delegates in a meeting on Alaska, a logical but erroneous combination. Bishop Gordon of Alaska wrote us that he had read about our meeting in the CHURCH NEWS and was happy to see his Diocese had at last gotten into the Home Department. He has been trying for years to get Alaska out of Overseas! The Overseas Department having "relinquished Alaska", has concentrated on the missionary area of Southern Asia with four excellent speakers on India.

In recognition that the University is becoming increasingly important as the steward of culture in our country, the Home Department has programmed Churchwork in colleges and recommended to parish treasurers that a contribution to college work in the Province be included in their budget. At the College Work meeting, Dr. Blewett was introduced to the women and the Rev. John Paul Carter, the Secretary for College Work in the Province, spoke about his work with faculty and students.

The Department of Promotion is also interested in students and held two conferences at high school and at college level on Summer Service Projects. The Church Periodical Club also furthers learning through dissemination of books and magazines to clergy and seminarians and overseas.

The newest Department, Ecumenical Relations, is not only providing informative programs on the progress and roadblocks to oneness in the Body of Christ but is also practicing ecumenicity by inviting delegations from the other denominations to the Packard Memorial Room.

The women are caught up in grass roots ecumenicity in many directions. Our Prayer and Worship Department promoted participation in the 175 services held in the greater Philadelphia area on World Day of Prayer. Christian Social Relations joined the United Churchwomen in a conference on "Community Tensions". We took an active part in 6th General Association of the National Council of Churches of Christ last December with Mrs. Parnum in charge of hospitality and Mrs. Rogers arranging the Episcopal banquet. Mrs. Allen, Vice President of Christian Education, is chairman of the annual Interdenominational Mission Institute.

The Conference Center under its new directorship is the 3rd Diocesan Institution to become befriended by a Women's Committee. The Philadelphia Divinity School and Episcopal Community Services have had for some time a solicitous feminine eye on their furnishings and hospitality needs and special interests. In fact there is a certain amount of rivalry among them for the ECW dollar in a spirit of free enterprise with its well known profitable results.

Mrs. Briggs, Diocesan Treasurer for the Women, concludes her term of office this month and leaves us with greatly simplified bookkeeping. The measures that have been instituted are basically simple and have received the approval of Mr. Lindley Franklin.

In the past the women have been in the habit of sending a check to our treasurer which counted toward the parish pledge and which covered contributions to National Council Departments (Overseas, Home and Christian Social Relations), as well as Diocesan institutions. The parish women made their own breakdown of this sum in allocations to the different departments. These amounts had to be reported monthly to ECW Diocesan Department treasurers. They in turn informed our treasurer at intervals, how much to send over to the bookkeeper of the Diocese,

Mrs. Adams. This procedure was cumbersome and meaningless because the women of a parish cannot designate how much the National Council shall spend in the various departments—this being determined by the budget adopted at General Convention. Therefore we have asked parish women's treasurers to send their Contributions towards the parish pledge to their own accounting warden. We shall no longer know at Diocesan level how much women contribute toward parish pledges. Our last record of this is $44,793 for the year ending December 30, 1963 (from now on this amount will be buried in the total pledge of the parishes). It is interesting to note that this amount is $2362 less than last year's. It would seem that separate money raising ventures on the part of the women may already be declining in favor of tithing. We hope this is so.

The United Thank Offering blue Boxes have produced $71,592.50 in prayerful gratitude for daily blessings.

The breaking down of parochialism is frequent practice with the women. All of our department meetings at the Church House afford a chance for delegates from different parishes to meet. The area workshops of Christian Education and Prayer and Worship and Feast of Annunciation Corporate Communion are occasions for intra-parish cooperation and friendship. Our "Go-See" trips add to the awareness of what goes on in different parts of the Diocese. There are also those 30 Diocesan Committees and Agencies bringing women of different parishes together. Another attack on parochialism is currently being launched through promotion of the Parish Every Family Plan of the EPISCOPALIAN. We consider $2 per family not too much to invest in deepening our sense of mission.

As you can see, women's work in the Diocese is not exactly dying out, but one cannot be entirely content with the picture. A small percentage of the Churchwomen are carrying on the extraordinary lot of activities of which I have mentioned a few.

It is a fact that twice as many women are working than there were 50 years ago—that women are less domestic, better educated and living longer, but does this account for a sense among many Churchwomen of an inadequacy in the challenge or the outlet for serving, offered to women by the Church and by women to the Church?

I am inclined to think that incentive is missing. There is a gap between the Christian message and Christian mission, where we lose many of them. Other projects than Churchwomen's work appeal to the majority of women churchgoers as being more important.

The women of the Diocese look forward, with the help of Bishop DeWitt, to finding ways to set more hearts on fire. Perhaps initiative and adventurousness in Churchwork will grow out of the mutual responsibility approach. I hope that the Holy Spirit will disclose to the Women of the Church new avenues for being the Body of Christ in the world and that the disturbance of the Holy Spirit will move them all.

The 90th Annual Meeting

MINUTES

Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers

The 90th Annual Meeting of The Episcopal Churchwomen, was held on Wednesday, May 6, 1964, at Denbigh, beginning at approximately 10:30 a.m. with the singing of a hymn, after which Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr. called the meeting to order. Mrs. Richard W. Thorington led in prayer.

Upon motion the reading of the minutes of the previous Annual Meeting was dispensed with, as they had been published in the 1963 Year Book.

Mrs. Elmer E. Briggs gave the Treasurer's report for the year ending December 31, 1963. The financial books have been audited and are on file in the office, should anyone wish to see them. Mrs. Briggs also expressed her appreciation for the cooperation received from Presidents and Treasurers of the Diocese during her three year tenure in office.

Mrs. Lea gave the President's report, which incorporated the highlights from the reports of the officers of the Diocesan Board. The reports of these officers are published.

The Diocesan Board passed a resolution concerning the publication of these annual reports. This was presented to the Diocesan Convention and passed on May 5, 1964. The JOURNAL is bound with the DIRECTORY of the Diocese. In the future this booklet will be sent to parish presidents and to members of the Board. The Women's Office will no longer publish a separate YEAR BOOK.

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE PUBLICATION OF ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN, DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

WHEREAS, the Report of the President of the Episcopal Churchwomen to the Diocesan Convention has been published in the JOURNAL for the past three years, and

WHEREAS, THE DIRECTORY of the Women of the Diocese, listing names and addresses of Diocesan Officers, along with the names and addresses of all parish presidents of Women's Groups, was incorporated into the DIRECTORY OF THE DIOCESE in 1963, and,

WHEREAS, the work of the Women of the Diocese is increasingly being coordinated with the program of the staff and of the departments of Executive Council, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 180th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania accept and approve the recommendation of the Diocesan Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen that the Annual Reports of the officers of the Diocesan Board of the Churchwomen be incorporated into the JOURNAL of the Diocese.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that ways and means be found by the Women, so that, through mutual responsibility and sharing of office help and equipment, the additional cost to the Diocese be minimized.

Mrs. Siter Owen, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, submitted the following slate which had been approved by Bishop Armstrong, the Executive Committee, and the Diocesan Board, to serve for three year terms, with the exception of the Chairman of the Nominating Committee who is elected annually:

Vice-President at Large:	Mrs. Allen Hunter White, St. Martin's, Radnor
Vice-President, Department of Missions:	Mrs. John P. Lutz, Holy Trinity, Philadelphia
Vice-President, Department of Christian Education:	Mrs. Henry Hood, St. Faith, Brookline
Secretary, Diocesan Board:	Mrs. Edwin Rogers, St. Peter's, Glenside
Treasurer:	Mrs. J. Ebert Butterworth, St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill
Assistant Treasurer:	Mrs. Earl James, Trinity Memorial, Philadelphia
Chairman 1965 Nominating Committee:	Mrs. William E. Lingelbach, St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill

Mrs. Owen read from the By-Laws, Article II, Section 2, Paragraph b. Nominations may be made from the floor by any voting member, providing such nominations have been seconded by not less than ten members and approved by the Bishop two weeks prior to the meeting.

In the absence of nominations from the floor, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT

Mrs. Elmer E. Briggs

The financial books for the calendar year 1963 have been audited by Mr. Horace Y. Rogers C.P.A. and found correct. Detailed copies of his reports are on file in the Women's Office at the Church House and are open to anyone wishing to see them.

The full, original reports are on file in the office. It was necessary to cut some of them to conform to the space in the JOURNAL.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT-AT-LARGE

Mrs. Karl Beyer

With the revision of the By-Laws in 1963, The Vice-President-at-Large became responsible for the Evening Meetings held once a month at the Church House.

We were singularly honored to have the Rt. Rev. John H. Sadiq, Bishop of Nagpur, as the Keynote speaker in October. He had been one of the distinguished leaders at the Anglican Congress, which met in Toronto the previous August.

In the spring of 1964 Bishop Sadiq became the first to be appointed of the proposed nine regional officers of the world-wide Anglican Communion. By concurrent action of the Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon; the Archbishop of Canterbury; the Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion, Bishop Sadiq was named as the responsible officer for the fifteen Anglican dioceses in Ceylon, India and East Pakistan.

September	Keynote: "The Changing City Challenges the Church"—Panel on the Church of the Advocate, Mr. Thomas Fisher, Jr., Mr. Spencer Wright III, members of the Bishop's Committee, and the Rev. Paul Washington, Rector
October	Keynote: "The Christian Mission in Southern Asia"—The Rt. Rev. John W. Sadiq, Bishop of Nagpur, India
November	Members of the Evening Committee were invited to join with United Thank Offering Custodians for Evening meeting with Miss

- Averill Greet, staff member of the India Christian Mission
- January Keynote: "The Gospel of Luke"—The Rev. Robert R. Spears, Rector, Trinity Church, Princeton, N.J.
- April Program Planning—Church House

DEPARTMENT OF PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Mrs. Mintum Wright

If the Christian life is a pilgrimage, could it be said that a productive program is one that both serves people where they are and also endeavors to point a step forward? The members of the clergy who have helped this year in the study of St. Luke's Gospel did just this, and receive sincere gratitude, both for unsung parochial programs, and for leadership at Department meetings.

The words quoted by Bishop Armstrong at the Advent Quiet Morning, "Having loved his own who were in the world he loved them unto the end", were the highlight of his meditation and became for us a high commission as well as a description of him. This Department ever found our Bishop a wise, patient and creative counselor and our year ends as it began, with thanks to God for his leadership.

- October Retreat—Subject: Christian Disciplines—the Rev. William S. Hill, Rector, St. Paul's Church, Lansing Michigan
- Area Meetings—Subject: Barclay's "Gospel of Luke"

- All Saints, Norristown Grace, Mt. Airy
- Redemption, Southampton
- May Conference at Denbigh—"Reading the Bible Today"—The Rev. John F. Leser, Rector, Calvary Church, Germantown

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN AFFAIRS

Mrs. Howard W. Taylor, Jr.

The Keynote Subject, "The Changing City Challenges the Church", was shared by this Department with the Department of Christian Social Relations. Since this subject was also the theme of the Fall clergy Conference, most of the programs were within this area.

- September Evening Keynote: "The Changing City Challenges the Church"—Panel on the Church of The Advocate, Mr. Thomas Fisher, Jr., Mr. Spencer Wright III, members of the Bishop's Committee, and the Rev. Paul Washington, Rector
- October Keynote: "The Changing City"—the Rev. Ledlie I. Laughlin, Jr., Dean of the Newark Cathedral
- November The Ministry of the Priesthood—the Rev. Howard Gordon Clark, Director of Development of the Philadelphia Divinity School
- February "Go-See" trip to the Church of the Advocate, 135 women participated
- April Denbigh, the Conference Center—The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, Director, described it as a place of meditation, reflection, retreat, inspiration and education. Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr. spoke of the work of the Women's Committee

THE FOUNDERS COMMITTEE OF THE CO-OPERATIVE SHOP plans to collect saleable items at the meetings of the Department of Diocesan Affairs in the Fall.

THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE FOR THE DIVINITY SCHOOL held on December 4 "Safari in Africa", an illustrated talk by Mr. Henry Mirick, in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund of Philadelphia Divinity School.

On December 14 the committee held their annual Christmas party for students, faculty and their families.

On April 15 "Friends of the School Tea", honored Bishop Robert L. DeWitt.

The needlepoint cushions for St. Andrews Chapel, started last year, are nearing completion.

THE EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMITTEE provided the refreshments for the "Open House" at the dedication of Bishop Stevens House, 232 South Third St., and are supplying small much needed furnishings, both for the new building and for Old Saint Paul's, across the Street.

The Committee is looking forward to larger, wider membership and closer affiliation with activity of Episcopal Community Services itself.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS
Mrs. William E. Lingelbach, Jr.

The Keynote subject, "The Christian Mission in Southern Asia", included India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Nepal. We were unable to procure speakers on two of these countries; as a result of this we had the unusual opportunity of hearing about a variety of experiences in India and Ceylon.

We were singularly honored to have the very distinguished Right Rev. John H. Sadiq, Bishop of Nagpur, as our Keynote speaker at both morning and evening meetings in October.

Miss Averill Greet of the Indian Christian Mission pictured so poignantly the great needs of the school that a list was compiled and a plea for a United Thank Offering Grant sent to Bishop Bayne, Bishop Bentley and Miss Betty Beath, Associate Secretary, General Division of Women's Work. This was turned down because the Mission is not Anglican, and the Anglican needs are far greater than National Council or United Thank Offering are able to supply. Therefore the Overseas delegates voted to send their legacy money, $150.00 to the India Christian Mission

Mrs. Charles B. Allen

This past year has been one of much "encounter" and "dialogue" with the parishes, both in meetings and in person. Focusing on the contemporary Christian in Urban Society, three Area Workshops were cosponsored with the Diocesan Department of Christian Education, at St. Paul's, Levittown; Trinity, Swarthmore; and at the Church House. Members of the Department also participated in convocational programs.

It was the great privilege of your Vice President to participate in the Provincial Leadership Training Institute held at Denbigh in October and in January, under the direction of the Leadership Training Division of the National Council.

Three Program-Planning meetings were offered in the Spring, one at Denbigh, two at the Church House, presenting suggested study themes for next year.

For the first time in some years, a two-day Leadership Training Conference was held at Denbigh, led by Miss Edith Daly of the National Department of Christian Education, and supported by clergy and laity of the Diocesan Department.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS
Mrs. Horace J. Wheaton

The Department of Christian Social Relations covers many facets of Christian living. It might be called "Christianity in Action", therefore its programs are varied.

The Churchwomen were represented at a Protracted Meeting held by the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations, at the Conference Center, at which areas of social import were examined and discussed, which will be an aid in interpreting Christian Social Relations to the parishes.

- September Evening Keynote: "The Changing City Challenges the Church"—Panel on the Church of the Advocate, Mr. Thomas Fisher, Jr., Mr. Spencer Wright III, members of the Bishop's Committee, and the Rev. Paul Washington, Rector
- October Keynote: "The Changing City"—the Rev. Ledlie I. Laughlin, Jr., Dean of the Newark Cathedral
- November "The Present Status of the Negro"—the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Rector of St. Thomas Church, West Philadelphia. The movie "The City of Necessity" was shown before his address
- January "World Peace through World Law"—Dr. D. Stewart Polk, a member of the Philadelphia Area Council of the United World Federalists
- March Theme "Community Tensions" with the sub-topics "Relevance of Religion to Community" and "Conscience and Community"—This meeting in conjunction with the United Church Women's Social Education and Action Committee and B'nai Brith
- April "Go-See" Trip to Episcopal Hospital, with Elizabeth Price Martin League as hostesses

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #1 at Philadelphia General Hospital was helpful in taking patients to the Auto Show, the Flower Show, the Circus and on other expeditions. The group from St. George's Church in Ardmore worked in the psychiatric wards. The women of Christ Church Hospital made gifts for patients. Three walkers were given to the Pediatric Department. A total of 1843 packages was distributed at Christmas time.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #2 at Episcopal Hospital has pledged $75,000 toward the new building, $10,000 of which has been paid. The league provides incidental equipment, new curtains, gifts and refreshments for seasonal parties. The new library cart and gift cart were purchased by the League and are manned by League members. Funds are raised at the Emergency Aid Bazaar, the Card Party and Pansy Sale, the United Nations Bazaar and the May Fete.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #3 at Riverview Home reports that the Easter dress project was a great success. About 1000 dresses were donated, so that each woman could receive a dress, a hat and a handbag. The dresses not needed were stored for future use. Members of the League receive the gratitude of the residents for other works—a remembrance at Easter or Mother's day, a birthday party or Christmas present. "Forasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, you have done it unto me."

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. J. Barton Linvill

During the past year, three areas of church work were of concern to the Department of Promotion; gathering news for the Women's Page of the CHURCH NEWS; stimulating young people for summer service projects; and enlightening women of the Diocese concerning church vocations.

- December Summer Service Projects for College Students—Austrian Refugee Camp, Christina Roak
- Elko Lake Camp for Underprivileged Children, Suzanne Smail
- Alaska, Bible School, Mary-Anna Fox
- Church of the Advocate Day Camp, M. Kline Lea
- January Church Vocations—Mrs. Robert N. Rodenmayer, Executive Secretary Department of Christian Ministries, National Council (A meeting for parish presidents)
- March Summer Projects for High School Students—Powelton-Mantua Christian Day Camp at St. Andrew's Church, the Rev. Edward P. Rementer
- Alaska, Bible School, Sarah Johnson
- (A meeting at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh for the Wissahickon Valley area)

The convocation chairmen meet with the Vice-President of Promotion to exchange ideas. Complete reports of the women's work in the convocations appear elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLY

Mrs. Arthur W. Howe, Jr.

The assignment from National Council was completed:

St. Luke's Hospital, Ponce, Puerto Rico	$500.00
Colegio San Justo, Puerto Rico.....	200.00
Quinta Tranquilla, Puerto Rico	125.00
Supply Secretary's Gift Fund	100.00
Interchurch Medical Assistance.....	10.00
St. Luke's Hospital, Ponce—supplies & surgical dressings and curtains
Corn Creek, South Dakota—layettes and children's clothes
Holy Cross, Pine Ridge Mission—dresses and Underclothes

1003 garments and hospital items for this assignment were cut out by Miss Anne Longstreth and sewn by the women in the parishes. In addition to the regular assignment, 640 garments were cut and made for Church World Service, 239 for Emergency Aid and 1424 for Episcopal Hospital.

To complete the assignment, 228 pairs of socks, stockings or under clothes were purchased, as well as 90 dozen diapers.

More than 100 sweaters, caps and mittens have been knit and sent to Fairbanks, Alaska; Wakpala, South Dakota; and to Church World Service.

DEPARTMENT OF ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

Mrs. Edward J. Parnum

The three top-level meetings of this department were attended in good numbers by women of other denominations, in a warm spirit of ecumenical fellowship.

- | | |
|----------|---|
| November | Recent Consultations on Church Union—Mrs. E. Harris Harbison, an associate editor of PRESBYTERIAN LIFE and the only woman of the Presbyterian delegation to the Consultation |
| January | "The Church...The Churches and the Quest for Reunion"—a review of the Hood lectures of the Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, given by Mrs. Karl Beyer |
| March | "What the Churches Think and Their Specific Approaches to the Ecumenical Movement"—a panel discussion by Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel, Mrs. Robert Koenig and Dr. Arthur Crabtree, moderated by the Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr. |

DEPARTMENT OF UNITED CHURCH WOMEN, Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches—When the Sixth General Assembly of the National Council of Churches met in Philadelphia in December, Mrs. Edward J. Parnum was hospitality chairman and Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers arranged a wonderful dinner for some 200 Episcopalians. Mrs. Charles B. Allen was chairman of the Annual Mission Institute in September.

The Fortieth Annual Luncheon was attended by over 1,000 persons. Mrs. Theodore F. Wallace, National President of the United Church Women, spoke on "Ecumenicity—Imaginary or Real?"

The Episcopal Churchwomen promoted World Community Day, May Fellowship Day and the World Day of Prayer.

Church World Service received 50,000 lbs. of clothing and 15,000 lbs. of blankets for Algeria. 4,927 Christmas stockings were distributed to State Mental hospitals; more volunteers are needed for this project. Of the 3,000 foreign students in this area, only about 2,300 have been extended hospitality through host families.

DEPARTMENT OF HOSPITALITY

Mrs. Cuthbert Latta

The success of the new Hospitality Department is most gratifying to its chairman and co-chairman, Mrs. Ophelia Williams. From September 1963 through May 1964 23 luncheons were prepared at the Church House and a total of 622 people served.

We had a lovely day for the Annual Luncheon on May 13, following the United Thank Offering Presentation at the Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel. There were 584 women at lunch, with a sprinkling of clergy and members of the Academy staff as honoured guests.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Mrs. Rayburn C. Smith, Jr.

A Workshop for parish custodians opened the fall season with a discussion of ideas and methods for stimulating interest in the United Thank Offering. Representatives of city, suburban and country parishes spoke.

The Fall Presentation took place on November 20 at St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia. Miss Averill Greet, whose parents and grandparents were missionaries under the Interdenominational India Christian Mission, spoke of the work and the needs in India and in Ceylon. The total fall offering amounted to over $35,800.00.

The Spring meeting for custodians was held in March in conjunction with the Home Division of the Department of Missions. Miss Mary-Anna Fox, who had taught Bible school in Alaska, at Fairbanks and at Fort Yukon, told of her experiences among the Indians and the Eskimos and showed colorful moving pictures.

The Spring Presentation was held at Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel on May 13. Bishop DeWitt was the celebrant, with Bishop Hart and Bishop Tsu assisting at two side altars set up in the transepts. The Rt. Rev. Thomas Henry Wright, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, was the speaker. He is head of the Overseas Department of the National Council, chairman of the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ. He told of his recent glimpses of the buildings constructed with United Thank Offering grants in Brazil, Korea and Africa and graphically described the real meaning of "Mutual Responsibility..." The total presentation amounted to over $36,600.00.

MISSION SHOP Mrs. C. Fenno Hoffman

Our stock is drawn from Okinawa, Formosa, Hong Kong, Japan, the Holy Land, Puerto Rico, Haiti and India. Our Indian American field supplies articles from South Dakota, Arizona, Wisconsin and Alaska. A group of Chinese refugees and students in San Francisco, send us articles for sale, and we have attractive things made by shut-ins in our own neighborhood. All this is a constant reminder that our Church lives in the hearts of people all over the world!

This year we sent, again, $400.00, to augment the Travel Fund, for delegates to the Synod and Triennial meetings.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE Mrs. William Day

The following names were entered in the Book of Remembrance:

Dorothy B. Smith
Mary Parry Farr
Emily Jane Heywood
Mary A. Stitt
Freida Anna Diehl
Anna Huger Morris
Marion Gordon Schoff Ridell
Margaret F.J. Reese

Gifts totaling $673.00 were sent to:

The Diocesan Altar Guild
The Philadelphia Divinity School
Episcopal Community Service for work among the blind Overseas Missions
The Supply Department
St. Dunstan's of Canterbury, Blue Bell Mission
The Periodical Club
Altar Guild of St. Asaphs
Diocesan Affairs
Prayer and Worship
United Thank Offering
Indian Hope

THE CONFERENCE OF THE PROVINCE OF WASHINGTON Mrs. Siter Owen

Forty-six members of the Diocese attended the 1963 Hood Conference, and all but ten were women. All forty-six felt privileged to have listened to Bishop Angus Dun's wise and witty ecumenical addresses; to have been up-lifted by Chaplin James W. Kennedy's sermons at evensong, and to have shared the fun of folk-dancing and a hoot-nanny as well as the beauty of a superb organ recital and the joy of responding with full heart and voice in the worship services. All forty-six were sorry for those who stayed away.

AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS

The Altar Guild
Mrs. Daniel S. Wood

"The work is great, for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God."
1 Chronicles 29:1

What a privilege it is for us to be able, in our small way, to respond to the requests of those who ask our help:

Church of the Advocate—material for Fair Linen, 4 purificators and lavabo towels

Christ Church, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin—6 purificators and lavabo towels

Tsumeb, South West Africa—12 purificators and 12 lavabo towels

St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell—1 pall and $150 for linens

Episcopal Student Center, University of North Dakota—1 pall, 4 burse and veil kits, 6 purificators and 6 lavabo towels

Order of St. Benedict, Three Rivers, Michigan—$100 for Altar Fund on 25th Anniversary

Philadelphia Divinity School—Purple Frontal being ordered and Fair Linen

St. Barnabas, Kensington—Fair Linen to be made

The Diocesan Altar Guild has worked with the Institutional Chaplaincy Service and equipped the new chapel at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, replenished linens for Philadelphia State Hospital, the House of Correction, Sleighton Farms, and Holmesburg.

Church Periodical Club
Mrs. Paul Wayne Lingle

As requests continue to pour in from all over the world, so the Church Periodical Club of the Diocese continues to provide books, magazines, records for those who otherwise would not be able to have them.

Our projects included:

St. Paul's University, Tokyo—$5,000 for Social Science Department
 Seminarians from this Diocese—Fifteen sets of Interpreter's Bibles
 Each Middler at the Philadelphia Divinity School—a $5.00 Book
 Bishop Tucker Seminary in Uganda—$100.00

St. George Seminary in Jerusalem—$100.00 and Interpreter's Bible
 Dictionary

Codrington Seminary in the British West Indies—$100.00

Mt. Edgecomb High School in Sitka, Alaska—125 gift books

St. Stephen's Church, Fort Yukon, Alaska—25 books for elementary readers

Episcopal Community Services—$90.00 for records for the blind

The Rev. Daniel Ooaka of Japan—set of the Interpreter's Bible
 Dictionary

Subscriptions to magazines, totalling 871, were sent to persons of need. Many hundreds of magazines were remailed by the women of the Diocese to those in far off places.

The Girls' Friendly Society
Mrs. Elmer Billings

Following the 49th National Assembly in June, activities moved to Holiday House in Cape May for fun and fellowship. Girls' Friendly Society World Day of Prayer was observed in September.

The Mission Object, decided by vote at the last National Assembly, was to adopt the suggestion of the Home Department of National Council, and allocate $3,000 for a "Pilot Project" in urban work, under the direction of the Home Department of National Council. An Additional $500 will be given for a Cleveland Project.

The Rev. Paul Washington spoke on "The Changing City" at the Annual Senior Mission Service at Trinity Church, Oxford. The Junior Mission Offering was presented at the Annual Service in May, in conjunction with a contest day and the achievement awards for handicrafts.

Project 2000 will be continued throughout the coming year with the hope of reaching the goal of $500,000.

The Daughters of the King
Mrs. Martha E. Eisenhower

Work of the Order is similar to that carried on by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew among men. It was not, and is not intended that the Order should compete with established guilds; it is, rather, a special group with a spiritual purpose. The Chapters are not permitted by the constitution of the Order to raise money.

APPENDIX M REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The Canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed throughout the year. Requests for certificates of Holy Baptism, Marriages and Burials, from the Registers of closed parishes have been complied with, insofar as the records were available.

The attention of all officers of Diocesan Organizations and Institutions, and Vestries of Parishes is called to the importance of preserving official books of record and other documentary papers of said organizations. In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter, for permanent storage in the Church House vault.

179th Annual Convention

THIRD DAY

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
 7:30 P.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1963

Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, the Rev. Alfred Vail and the Rev. Cuthbert Pratt.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 8:30 p.m.

The Canon of Courtesy was then read by the Secretary of Convention.

Before giving his consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, the Bishop outlined his reasons for preferring a Bishop Coadjutor to a Suffragan Bishop. He then read Canon 39, Sec. 2 (a):

Extent of Diocesan Work

"I, Joseph Gillespie Armstrong, Bishop of Pennsylvania, hereby give my consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor to share in the Pastoral Care and Administration of the Diocese.

I assign to the Bishop Coadjutor jurisdiction over the Department of Missions and the Department of Religious Education. This includes the appointment of Vicars of the Diocesan Missions, except for those in the Episcopal Community Services, which I will retain. As provided for in Canon 39, when the Bishop is consecrated, the duties assigned may be enlarged by mutual consent."

The following Resolution was put forward by the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges:

WHEREAS, the Bishop of Pennsylvania, the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, S.T.D., has asked for a Bishop Coadjutor in view of the extent of the Diocesan work and has stated the work that he will assign to such a Bishop Coadjutor:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That this Convention authorize the Secretary of Convention to request the consents of the House of Bishops and of the Standing Committees of the Dioceses of this Church to the Election of such a Bishop Coadjutor.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee provide for the salary and expenses of such a Bishop Coadjutor out of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, increasing the assessment rate on the Parishes if need be.

THAT this Convention be reconvened when the necessary consents of Bishops and Standing Committees have been received.

AND THAT the Bishop be requested to appoint a small committee to receive the names of those thought fit to be such Bishop Coadjutor, and to nominate from those names a selection of those best fitted, and that such proposed nominations should be sent to the members of this Convention with some description of the men at least two weeks prior to the meeting of Convention.

After some discussion, this resolution was seconded and ADOPTED.

The Bishop welcomed to the Convention Fr. James Morton from the Home Department, and Dr. Richard Harbour from the Department of Christian Education of the National Council.

The Rev. Dr. Sturges presented the report of Day & Zimmerman, Inc., copies of which had previously been circulated to all clergymen in the Diocese, and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, That the report of Day and Zimmerman, Inc. "Covering a Study of the 'Housing Needs' of the Diocese of Pennsylvania" be received and referred to the Standing Committee.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee be authorized to hold a series of open hearings to which all who have any questions or objections to the findings of this report may come and present their views, and on the basis of the hearings, to decide on the location of a Church House, and to engage an architect to draw up preliminary plans to be submitted to the May meeting of Convention, the architect's fee to be taken from the Diocesan and Convention Suspense Account.

After clarification of this resolution by the Chancellor, and considerable discussion by members of the Clergy, the following amendment was put forward by the Rev. James G. Ludwig, III:

THAT the selection of the architect and the preparation of preliminary plans be left until this Convention has approved the site for the proposed Church House.

After further discussion, the following amended resolution was read by the Rev. Dr. Sturges, seconded and PASSED:

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Report of Day & Zimmerman, Inc., "Covering a Study of the 'Housing Needs' of the Diocese of Pennsylvania" be received and referred to the Standing Committee.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee be authorized to hold a series of open hearings to which all who have any questions or objections to the findings of this Report may come and present their views,

AND that the selection of the architect and the preparation of preliminary plans be left until this Convention has approved the site for the proposed Church House.

A short presentation was then made by Mr. Shelby A. McMillion on behalf of the Episcopalian magazine, in which he referred to it as "one of the best edited magazines in the United States". Its current circulation is at an all-time high of 110,000. He advocated the use by all Clergy in the Diocese of the Parish Every Family Plan in order to place the Episcopalian in every home. He mentioned that fifteen parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania were already using this plan, and concluded his presentation by quoting the following statement of Bishop Armstrong:

"In order that all communicant families in this Diocese may have the inspiration, information and other benefits derived regularly from reading the Episcopalian - the church's official national monthly magazine - and in order to deepen the sense of commitment and stewardship within our parishes, I hope that every rector of every parish and every vicar of every mission will see that the Episcopalian goes into its homes by enrolling in the Parish Every Family Plan at an early date."

The Rev. Alfred Vail, Secretary of the Convention, offered the following resolution which was seconded and CARRIED:

RESOLVED, That the Minutes of this session of this Convention as they are recorded be printed in the pre-printed material and mailed to the deputies prior to the 180th Convention

AND, That this session of Convention be recessed and that the 179th Convention be reconvened at the call of the Bishop for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor.

The Convention adjourned at 9:30 p.m. after Benediction by the Bishop.

APPENDIX U-2

FOURTH DAY

179TH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

9:00 A.M., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1963

Meeting at the call of the Bishop in accordance with the action of the Convention at the close of the Third Day, September 9, 1963, to elect a Bishop Coadjutor.

Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, the Rev. Alfred Vail and the Rev. Cuthbert Pratt.

The Convention was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by the Bishop, who presided and opened the session with prayer.

The Secretary reported as follows:

"This is to certify that the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A. has been notified that the Diocese of Pennsylvania has received consents to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor in accordance with the petition circulated, bearing the date September 10, 1963, and the Resolution of the session of Convention held on September 9, 1963.

On October 22, 1963, the Secretary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania received a letter from the Right Reverend John B. Bentley, D.D., acting in behalf of the Presiding Bishop, and indicating that the Diocese had received the necessary consents and was free to proceed with the election of a Bishop Coadjutor.

Certified: Alfred Vail
Secretary of Convention"

The Chancellor then read Article IX of the Constitution, pertaining to the election of Bishops and to the necessary quorum, and also the Canon of Courtesy.

A quorum having been declared present, the Rev. Dr. McKean, Chairman of the Committee on Dispatch of Business, presented the Agenda which on motion was ADOPTED.

The Rev. Dr. Long moved that nominations be permitted between ballots if more than one ballot is required for election. Seconded and CARRIED.

The Rev. Dr. Pratt, Chairman, reported for the Committee on Arrangements.

The Rev. Mr. Logan, Chairman, reported for the Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats.

The Secretary reported for Mr. Cheston, Chairman, Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats.

The Secretary, as Chairman of the Committee on Elections, offered in seriatim the following Rules and Procedures which were duly ADOPTED:

- (i) Time limit of five minutes for principal speech and two minutes each for not more than two seconding speeches for each candidate. President to keep time. Report of Nominating Committee not to count in computing time.
- (ii) Nominations may only be made by Nominating Committee or by a Deputy.
- (iii) No speeches on behalf of any candidate after nominations are closed.

- (iv) Name of candidate may be withdrawn at any time by:
 - a. Candidate himself, if present;
 - b. Nominator, if candidate not present - except that, in case of person nominated by the Nominating Committee, name may be withdrawn by such sponsor as designated by Chairman of Nominating Committee.
- (v) Voting places: Clergy - Centennial Room; Lay Deputies - Church House.
- (vi) Each Church or Mission entitled to vote shall cast ONE Lay Ballot, even though there may be three Deputies of a Parish present. Alternates are not entitled to seats or vote except when they serve in place of the regular elected Deputies and are registered with the Assistant Secretary of Convention.
- (vii) Article IX of the Constitution, on Election of a Bishop, etc. Pg. 19: "The election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan of this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner. The Clergy and Laity shall ballot separately, and a concurrent majority of both Orders shall be necessary to a choice. Provided, That if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present then two-thirds of the votes of that Order shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order.
And Provided Further, That the necessary quorum for the election shall consist of not less than one-half of the Clergy and Lay representations respectively entitled to seats and votes in Convention."

Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler, Chairman, reported for the Nominating Committee as follows:

The report of the Committee appointed by Bishop Armstrong for the nomination of the Bishop Coadjutor has been mailed in sufficient quantities to permit distribution to members of the clergy and the lay delegates of each parish in the Diocese. Additional copies have been placed in the pews so that everyone should be familiar with the work of this Committee and the conclusions reached after many meetings in which over forty proposals were reviewed and evaluated.

If you have not had an opportunity to read this report, the Committee urges you to review it now and to give particular attention to the biographies of each nominee which may be supplemented by their sponsors and seconders. At this point I regret to announce that we have received a telegram from the Rt. Rev. Philip Frederick McNairy, Bishop Suffragan of Minnesota, requesting that his name be withdrawn from any consideration for Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania. Therefore, we must ask you to remove Bishop McNairy's name from the list of those included in the formal report of the Committee.

Assuming that you have had an opportunity to give this most important matter the consideration it justly deserves, the Committee appointed by Bishop Armstrong to review proposals and to nominate those individuals whom the Committee feels are best qualified to serve as Bishop Coadjutor (and in due course to become the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania) now offers in nomination the following, whose names appear in alphabetical order and whose biographies are attached to the formal report of this Committee:

- The Rev. Morris Fairchild Arnold, D.D.
Rector of Christ Church, Cincinnati, Ohio
- The Rt. Rev. Robert Lionne DeWitt, D.D.
Suffragan Bishop of Michigan
- The Rev. James Robertson MacColl, III, D.D.
Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Whitmarsh, Pa.

- The Rev. Chauncie Kilmer Myers, S.T.D.
Director, Urban Training Center for Christian Missions, Chicago, Illinois
- The Rev. James Arnold Purdie, D.D.
Director, Episcopal Community Services in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and Executive Director of the Children's Center of the Episcopal Church
- The Rev. Thorne Sparkman, S.T.D.
Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

On motion by Dr. McKean the report was APPROVED.

Nominations for the office of Bishop Coadjutor were made in the following order:

The Rev. Joseph H. Laird reported on the current status and plans for the future of the Diocesan Conference Center at Radnor.

The Secretary, in behalf of the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, announced that the Standing Committee would hold an open hearing on Thursday, January 9, 1964, at 8 p.m. for all those who might have suggestions or recommendations as to the location of the new Church House.

The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Sr., reported on the efforts being made and the progress attained in regard to the Second Day Resolution of this Convention, concerning the hiring policies of the Diocese and parishes.

Mr. Sydney L. W. Lea then made the following announcement:

"As Chairman of the Diocesan Research and Planning Group, I have asked Bishop Armstrong for this moment to call to your attention two or three urgent matters in connection with the Diocesan Self-Study.

First, I would like to thank the 141 parish clergy who have responded to the Bishop's request to name parish committees to supervise the Self-Study on the parish level.

However, this leaves fifty-five parishes who have not yet been heard from. It is essential that all these parish committees be appointed, and that we have at the Church House the names of their chairmen and members by December 20, 1963.

May I also remind the parish clergy that a team from National Council's General Division of Research and Field Study will have a briefing session for them on January 17, 1964, at 12:30 o'clock on the 33rd floor of the Philadelphia Savings Fund Society Building, 12 South 12th Street, Philadelphia."

The Bishop declared the Right Reverend Robert Lionne DeWitt, D.D. elected Bishop Coadjutor by concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay Orders.

The Doxology was sung and the Bishop appointed a Committee of Deputies with Dr. Edwards as Chairman, to notify Bishop DeWitt of his election.

The Deputies were instructed to sign the Canonical Testimonials to the election before leaving.

By vote of Convention, the Standing Committee was instructed to prepare and forward the Certificates and Testimonials as required by Canon.

On motion by Dr. McKean, the Convention expressed its gratitude and appreciation to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry for the use of the facilities of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

At 4:50 p.m. after prayers and the Benediction by the Bishop, the Convention adjourned.
